

Psalm 91

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

*I will say of the LORD,
"He is my refuge and my fortress,
my God, in whom I trust."*

Surely He will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence.

*He will cover you with His feathers,
and under His wings you will find refuge
His faithfulness will be your shield and rampart.*

*You will not fear the terror of night,
nor the arrow that flies by day,
nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness,
nor the plague that destroys at midday.*

A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you.

You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked.

If you make the Most High your dwelling—even the LORD, who is my refuge—

*then no harm will befall you,
no disaster will come near your tent.*

For He will command His angels concerning you

*to guard you in all your ways;
they will lift you up in their hands,
so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.*

*You will tread upon the lion and the cobra;
you will trample the great lion and the serpent.*

"Because he loves me," says the LORD, "I will rescue him;

I will protect him, for he acknowledges my name.

He will call upon me, and I will answer him;

*I will be with him in trouble,
I will deliver him and honor him.*

*With long life will I satisfy him
and show him my salvation."*

Harvey Hamburger, 86, of rural Seneca, passed away Thursday, May 12, 2011 at the Oahe Manor in Gettysburg, SD.

Harvey Roy Hamburger was born June 25, 1924 in Corn, OK, to Philip and Minnie (Sauer) Hamburger. Harvey grew up four miles north of Corn, OK, where his parents farmed. During his high school years, he suffered a stroke, keeping him out of school for one year and preventing him from earning a high school diploma.

Harvey was married to Irene Born on August 1, 1946 in Follett, TX. They made their home eight miles south of Darrrouzett, TX, where he farmed and ranched with his father-in-law. While in Texas, their little family grew to five as three beautiful children were born: Mildred, Martha, and Philip.

In 1956, Harvey followed his father and brothers north, transplanting his family to Lebanon, SD, where he continued to farm. While in Lebanon, another son, Elmer, joined the family. In 1959, Harvey purchased the Walt Hall place, southwest of Seneca, SD, where he built his home and farm, raising crops and livestock. In 1976, both of his sons joined his farming operation.

Inventive and practical, Harvey designed and built equipment himself, rather than purchase them. He was always active in construction, building three houses in 1977, 1984 and 1990, and three different farm shops in 1965, 1985 and 2006.

Harvey's life was his relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ and he strived to live according to God's Word, the Holy Bible. Harvey had a generous spirit, and gave away more than he spent on himself.

He was a charter member of Grace Bible Church in Gettysburg and a member of the Farm Bureau.

Harvey enjoyed living on the farm until he suffered another stroke in 2008. He entered the Faulkton Healthcare Center and later transferred to the Oahe Manor in Gettysburg.

He is survived by his wife, Irene of Seneca; daughters, Mildred (Rich) Richer of Miller, Martha (Gaven) Banik of Sioux Falls; sons, Philip (Barbara) and Elmer (Cecelia) of Seneca; brothers, Willie (Darlene) and Wilbur (Jean) of California, and Melvin (Viola) of Gettysburg; sister, Naomi (Wayne) Johnson of Dallas, TX; 15 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and many other relatives.

Harvey was preceded in death by his parents; infant sons Steven and Randy; and sister, Clara.
