

In Loving Memory

Eileen Ruth Boke was born November 26, 1930 at the home place in Potter County, South Dakota to Hans William "Bill" and Ruth Evelyn (Oaks) Boke. She attended and graduated from Lebanon High School in 1948. She went on to further her education and received a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education from Northern State College in 1978.

Eileen taught school in 1948 and 1949 until her marriage on June 5, 1949 to J. Quentin Worth. They were married at the Congregational Church in Lebanon and made their home in Gettysburg. For the next 15 years Eileen was a homemaker and a mother. From 1964 through 1995 she returned to teaching where she taught K-8 grades, all in Potter County.

Some of her favorite things to fill her time were making quilts, wood burning, cross stitching, crocheting, reading and working with photography. Eileen also had an eye for angels, birds, teapots and pretty dishes. She attended the Gettysburg United Methodist Church and the First United Methodist Church in Aberdeen where she served as a Sunday and Bible School Teacher, UMW President and Treasurer, Resource Secretary and served on the Pastor's Parish Relations Committee. She also was a member of the Home Workers Social Club.

Eileen left with the hope that her family will remember that she was proud of and loved each and every one of them.

Eileen's life is left to be cherished by her two daughters: Marcia (Lester) Urban of Watertown and Roxie (Brad) Olson of Aberdeen; daughter-in-law: Nancy Worth of Clark; her six grandchildren: Cory (Jill) Worth, Brent Urban and fiancée Michelle and her children, Brady and Brianna; Emily (William) Cordell, Gina (Bradley) Enstad, Jonathan (Megan) Olson and Erin Olson; six great grandchildren: Caitlin and Jeffrey Worth, Hunter and Mason Cordell, and Mackenzie and Madison Enstad; her brother: Howard (Gail) Boke of Gettysburg; brother-in-law: Dean (Dottie) Worth of Gettysburg; sisters-in-law: Dorothy J. Worth and Marvel Worth of Gettysburg and a host of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband: J. Quentin Worth on December 18, 2010; her parents; one son, Rickey Worth; one grandson, Jeffrey Worth and one brother, Eugene Boke.

Miss Me - But Let me Go

*When I came to the end of the road
And the sun set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me - but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take.
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me - but let me go.*
