

Have you ever walked along a road and looked ahead of you to where the path turned suddenly and was lost
awhile to view?

Think of your loved one living still where the road goes on without end; it is only we who cannot see the path
beyond the bend.

Louis W. "Louie" Hagenlock, 92, of Gettysburg, passed away Monday, January 16, 2012, at the Oahe Manor in Gettysburg.

Louis Hagenlock was born February 6, 1919 in Grinnell, IA to Waldemar "Walt" and Della (Grimm) Hagenlock. The family moved to Seneca in 1924.

In March 1939 Louie married Pearl Roseland. To this marriage two children were born, Eileen and Joyce. Pearl passed away at the age of 28.

Louie enlisted in the United States Army serving in the Pacific Theater, during WWII from 1944-1946.

On July 14, 1949 he married Rose Barondeau and to this union three children were born: Joane, Ruth and Lewis. They made their home in Seneca where they owned and operated a gas station for several years.

The family moved to Gettysburg where Louie worked for Standard Oil and later as a car carrier driver. In the 1950's he and Gary Bliese built a repair shop where he worked on vehicles and operated a tow truck. Louie owned and operated the repair shop until purchasing the Medicine Rock Café, with his wife, in 1966. He and Rose operated the Rock until 1982. During Louie's breaks he worked on his masterpiece invention, "The air cycle" and other inventions in the back of the Rock. During his retirement years, Louie did farm work for Jim Brown, Rob & Larry Poeppel and Paul Nelson.

Louie was a member of the United Methodist Church, the Gettysburg Volunteer Fire Department and served as a member of the Gettysburg City Council.

Grateful to have shared in Louie's life are his daughters: Joane (Art) Beringer of Gettysburg and Ruth (Doug) Koch, of Spokane, WA; one son, Lew (Melody) Hagenlock of Greeley, CO; 10 grandchildren; 20 great grandchildren; one sister, Ellen (Nolen) Cogswell of Joaquin, TX; brothers: Carl of Onaka, Del (Donna) of Gettysburg, Les of Bozeman, MT, Glen and Roger (Bonnie) of Pierre.

He was preceded in death by his parents; both wives: Pearl & Rose; his daughters: Joyce in infancy and Eileen (Clair) Maroney; granddaughter, Jodi Beringer Larabee and one brother, Edwin.
