

The Lord is my Shepherd:
I shall not want
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Phyllis Wise, age 97, of Gettysburg, passed away on Friday, November 9, 2012 at the Oahe Manor, Gettysburg.

Phyllis Zuber Wise was born July 24, 1915, in Lowell Township, Potter County, S.D. to Henry Zuber and Grace (Herron) Zuber. She was four years old when her father died in a drowning accident. The family continued to live on the farm and she received her grade school education in a one room school house. Phyllis graduated from Gettysburg High School in 1934.

She married Louis Martin Wise on October 2, 1936 in Gettysburg where she lived all her life.

Phyllis provided room and board for high school boys for many years. She worked at the Jones Drug for a short time before she and Louie purchased and operated the Gambles Store.

Phyllis served in a number of civic duties including being one of the founding members of the Medicine Rock Senior Citizens Center. She had been a member of the Gettysburg Hospital Auxiliary, the Gettysburg Historical Society, Extension Club, the Gettysburg Country Club, and for many years she served as volunteer curator at the Dakota Sunrise Museum which she helped establish. This was a job she greatly enjoyed.

Phyllis enjoyed dancing, golfing, bowling, playing cards and watching high school sporting events.

She is survived by her two daughters: Lu Ann (Ernie) Edwards of Watertown, S.D. and Karen (Jerry) Baldwin of Custer, S.D. She is also survived by five grandchildren; four great grandchildren; two cousins: Eileen Hegerle and Lucille Ellenbecker of Gettysburg, and a special friend, Beryl Clark of Gettysburg.

Preceding her in death was her husband, Louie, both parents, her brother, Walton Zuber, and her sister, Renee Gesman.
