

God's finger touched her,
and she slipped away
From earth's dark shadows
to a brighter day;

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her weary eyes,
and whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

To a beautiful garden this friend has gone.
To a land of perfect rest;
Though she is gone, she still lives on in the garden of memory.

Gettysburg, South Dakota
www.familyfuneralhome.net

In Loving Memory of

Dolores Louise Worth

April 20, 1924
Pierre, South Dakota

July 20, 2013
Gettysburg, South Dakota

FUNERAL SERVICE: 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, July 23, 2013
United Methodist Church ~ Gettysburg, South Dakota

OFFICIATING: Pastor Jeff Adel

CASKETBEARERS:

Bart Worth	Mick Kennedy
Jay Worth	Rich LaRosh
Aaron Walberg	Dusty Wager

HONORARY CASKETBEARERS:

Members of the South Dakota Extension Homemakers Club,
Eastern Star, United Methodist Church, VFW Auxiliary,
American Legion Auxiliary, Medicine Rock Senior Citizens,
SD Cowbelles, and the Hospital Auxiliary

PIANIST: Nancy Smith

CONGREGATIONAL HYMNS:

"In the Garden"	"How Great Thou Art"
"Amazing Grace"	"Old Rugged Cross"

INTERMENT:

Gettysburg City Cemetery ~ Gettysburg, South Dakota

Dolores Louise Sutton was born April 20, 1924 to James and Florence (Nystrom) Sutton. She grew up in the Little Bend area. Around 1940 she moved with her parents to a farm west of Agar. She graduated from Pierre High School in 1942 and graduated from Northern State Teacher's College in Aberdeen in 1943. She taught school for one year and then moved to Huntington, California where she worked for Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company for two years and spent two years with the United Service Organization (USO). In 1946 she returned to South Dakota where she met Derwin Worth. They were married on September 3, 1946 in Sioux Falls and moved to the farm on the Missouri River in 1947.

Shortly after Derwin's death in 1988, Dolores moved into the Getty Apartments in Gettysburg. Around 2002 she moved into the Villa Apartments, and in 2010 into the Oahe Manor where she resided until her death.

Dolores was a 70+ year member of the South Dakota Extension Homemakers Club where she held both local and state offices. She was a member of the Eastern Star where she held all offices throughout her 50+ year membership. She was a member of the United Methodist Church, VFW Auxiliary, the American Legion Auxiliary, the Medicine Rock Senior Citizens, the SD Cowbelles, and the Hospital Auxiliary.

Dolores loved to bowl and was an avid bowler until shoulder and knee problems forced her to quit. She enjoyed cooking and baking and various crafts from leather tooling to candle making. She spent many years on the road driving her sons to baseball games, 4-H meetings, and other activities. She loved to travel and spent several summers touring the United States through Extension trips.

Dolores was preceded in death by her parents, husband, one sister, and one niece. She is survived by her brothers: Jim (Julie) Sutton and Lyle (Deanna) Sutton, Onida; two nieces and two nephews.

Memories of her life will be cherished by her sons, grandchildren and great grandchildren: Dave and Gail Worth of Eagle River, Alaska, and their sons John, Sioux Falls, & James, Eagle River; Dolan and Susan Worth and their children Bart (Carmen) Worth, Gettysburg, Heather (Mick) Kennedy, Harrisburg, and Mandy (Aaron) Walberg, Aberdeen; Delvin and Rene Worth and their children Elissa (Mitch) Stevens, Roseau, Minnesota, and Jay Worth (Angela Hiles), Gettysburg; Danny Worth and Dale Worth, Gettysburg. Nine great grandchildren are richer for having shared her life: Paige & Preston Worth; Alexis Neugebauer & Kaci Kennedy; Aaron, Russell, & Madelyn Walberg; Rose & Bodhi Stevens; and one great-great grandson, Cayden Neugebauer; her brothers: Jim (Julie) Sutton and Lyle (Deanna) Sutton, Onida; two nieces and two nephews.

Dolores was preceded in death by her parents, husband, one sister, and one niece.

F18A

Printed in U.S.A.

Going Home