

In Loving Memory Of

Joyce B. Kane

June 9, 1928
Gettysburg, South Dakota

August 21, 2013
Pierre, South Dakota

MASS OF CHRISTIAN BURIAL:
10:30 a.m., Tuesday, August 27, 2013
Sacred Heart Catholic Church
Gettysburg, South Dakota

OFFICIATING:
Fr. Jerry Kopel

LECTOR & EUCHARISTIC MINISTER:
Mike Bohnenkamp

EULOGIST:
Terry Voeltz

CASKETBEARERS:
Bill Dezeeuw Michael Sanders Steve Voeltz
David Voeltz Greg Frederick Travis Voeltz

MUSICIANS:
Judy Robbennolt & Sarah Larson

HYMNS:
“Amazing Grace” “On Eagle’s Wings”
“Hail Mary, Gentle Woman”
“Song of Farewell” “How Great Thou Art”

INTERMENT:
Sacred Heart Catholic Cemetery
Gettysburg, South Dakota

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father which art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name.*

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

*And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive
those who trespass against us.*

*And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil;*

*For Thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever and ever.*

Amen.

Gettysburg, South Dakota
www.familyfuneralhome.net

Joyce Kane, 85, of Gettysburg, passed away Wednesday, August 21, 2013 at Avera Maryhouse, Pierre.

Joyce Blanche Voeltz was born on June 9, 1928 in Gettysburg to Albert W. and Blanche (Stambach) Voeltz. Joyce was the oldest of seven children. She attended school in Gettysburg, graduating from Gettysburg High School. Joyce spent her entire life in Gettysburg and loved her hometown.

Shortly after graduating from high school, Joyce met a young soldier in an army uniform that she thought was the most handsome man she had ever seen. This U.S. soldier ended up being the love of her life. Joyce and Jim were married on August 25, 1947 and spent a lifetime together raising their family of six children.

Joyce spent her entire life caring for her family and doing for others. She filled many volunteer positions throughout the community such as being a 4-H leader, den mother for the cub scouts, a Boy Scout leader and countless other activities that her children were involved in.

Joyce had a green thumb and grew marvelous gardens and a yard full of flowers. She was an avid reader, reading hundreds of books from the Potter County Library. She was an extremely talented seamstress and was responsible for the clothes that many Gettysburg children wore for many years. Those closest to Joyce will tell you that she was as close to a self educated medical professional as you could find.

One of the best times in Joyce's life was when her and Jim owned and operated the Eastside Drive Inn. Many young people from the Gettysburg area will tell you they learned a lot about working from Joyce and of course that is where they earned their first income as an employee.

Joyce and Jim also enjoyed their square dancing club and attended many square dances around the area. As Joyce said, it was a lot of fun and good exercise too.

Joyce was a devout member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church and it was her strong faith that helped her through the many hardships she encountered in her life.

She is survived by two daughters, Marcie (Bill Dezeeuw) of Holland, MN and Stephanie (Michael Sanders) of Gettysburg; five grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; brother Bob Dean Voeltz (Helga) of Pierre, SD; sister Lana (Anthony Frederick) of Yankton, SD; brother Terry L. Voeltz (Jane) of Aberdeen, SD; many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, son Mark, daughter Kathleen, son Rikki, son Jimmy, sister LaVonne, brother Darrell, brother Marlo and his wife Shirley.

