

DON'T BE SAD

*Don't be sad and lonely,
Because I've gone away.
Think about me only,
When it's a brighter day.
Don't waste your time crying,
Since I'm no longer here.
You have spent enough time,
Showing me that you care.
Wipe away your sadness,
For tears won't bring relief.
Cherish the memories,
Forget about your grief.
If I could be with you,
That is where I would be,
But I have no power,
To change life's destiny.
So try to be happy,
Don't mourn your life away,
For we'll be together,
At the end of life's day.*

Lorraine Bown, 91, of Onida, passed away on Sunday, October 27, 2013 in Pierre.

Edna Lorraine Hord was born April 15, 1922 in Wausau, NE to George and Elsie (Coon) Hord. The family moved to Gettysburg when Lorraine was six years old; where she attended school and graduated from Gettysburg High School.

After her father's death Lorraine worked for the WPA. On April 18, 1942 Lorraine was united in marriage to Walter Sidney Bown. They made their home in rural Onida where they raised their family and she helped around the farm.

Lorraine loved spending her free time taking bus tours, sewing, quilting, doing crossword puzzles, cooking and baking. She and Sid also spent time square dancing.

She is survived by her husband, Sid of Onida; her children: Michael David (Diane) of St. Petersburg, FL, Nicholas Charles (Crystal) of Pierre and Debra Joan of Dallas, TX; grandchildren: Michelle (Matt) Simms, Leslie and Clayton Bown, Kristin (David) Steinhaus and Trevor Boldin; and four great grandchildren: Macy, Audrey and Sydney Steinhaus, and Cullen Simms.

Lorraine was preceded in death by her parents; two sisters, Mary Zuber and Maxine Bown; and one brother, George.
