The Quilt

by Thom Tapp

*Upon my frame God's mighty hand has patched a quilt together,
 A bit of joy, a patch of love,
 and its fabric is forever.*

*A thread of tears, a splash of pain,
 Both color this old quilt,
 But God has covered all my sin,
 There is no patch of quilt.*

Veronica Frost was born November 25, 1925 in Bowdle, SD to Nickolas and Catherine (Wirtz) Frost. She was raised in the Bowdle area and then moved with her family to Hoven where she attended and graduated from Hoven High School.

On February 28, 1946 Veronica was united in marriage to Phillip E. Vetter. Throughout the years Veronica worked at the Gambles Store, Jones Drug, the Sunset Café, Bohnenkamp's Ace Hardware, managed the Montgomery Ward Store for seven years and ran the Hut.

Phillip passed away in 1984. Veronica helped run the trucking business for some time and then bought the liquor store in April of 1987, which she ran until her retirement in 1991

Veronica was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church, Sacred Heart Altar Society, and the VFW Auxiliary. Her spare time was spent bowling, playing bingo and baseball, fishing, sewing and making quilts. Many of which were donated to veteran's.

Her life will be cherished by her children: Roger (Ginny) Vetter of Selby, David E. (Karen) Vetter of Gillette, WY and Alan (Angelene) Vetter of Gettysburg; grandchildren: Jason Vetter (Jen Cornett), Josh (Ashley) Vetter, Chris (Denise) Vetter, Mike (Doreen) Vetter, Lori Vetter, Dawn Vetter, Jessica (Travis) Kreger, Toni Vetter, and Kurt (Michelle) Storkson; 18 great grandchildren; one brother, Norbert Frost of Oregon; and one sister-in-law, Theresa Frost of Gettysburg.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; sisters: Anna Marie Herman, Marie Wirtz, Angeline Stubenrauch, and Loretta Mangrich; brothers: Joseph, Herbert, Robert, Wilfred, and LeRoy; one infant sibling; and a daughter-in-law, Sandy Vetter.
