

Miss Me – But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road,
And the sun has set for me.

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared.

Miss me but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.

It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.

Bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me - but let me go.

Carol Ducheneaux was born December 20, 1938 at Old Cheyenne Agency to Casper and Ada (Means) Ducheneaux. She attended school at Old Cheyenne, St. Joseph's in Chamberlain, and graduated from Crow Creek School at Stephan.

Following school, Carol married Roderick Hall and the couple moved to Dallas, Texas. In 1975 she moved to Eagle Butte where she went to work for the Cheyenne River Police Department as a dispatcher.

In the early 80's, Carol married Carlisle Mahto. They enjoyed traveling the country, following wherever Carlisle's job led them. In 1999 she moved to Aberdeen and worked for the BIA and IHS until she retired in 2000. Carol lived between Gettysburg, Pierre and Mobridge so she could be near her grandkids. After her retirement, Carol worked for the United Tribes in Pierre and Grand River Casino near Mobridge.

Some of Carol's favorite things to do were fishing, playing bingo, traveling, and spending time with her dogs and grandchildren.

Carol is survived by her children: Carrie Hall (Jackie Nerby) of Sioux Falls, Delano Hall of Pierre, Renee (Brady) Bear Stops of Pierre, Marie (William Robert) Arthur of Shenandoah Junction, WV, and Jason Mahto of Ft. Pierre; grandchildren: Arlyn, Caysee, Catie, Carly, Tyler, Bob, Kirbee, Jacob, Frances, Juella, Dionne, Samuel, Danny, Jordyn and Cameron; great grandchildren: Lauryn, Ainsley, Karsyn, Kenzi, John and Kamryn; siblings: Karen (Rusty) Pearman of Gettysburg, Robert (Connie) Ducheneaux of Fort Thompson, and Elmer Ducheneaux of Arizona.

She was preceded in death by her parents; daughter, Katherine Hall and her siblings: Lois, Bill, Lyle and Raymond.

The family would like to give special thanks for all of her caregivers at St. Mary's Hospital, Avera Mary House, Avera Gettysburg Hospital, Golden Living Center and Luce Funeral Home.

In Loving Memory
