

Irene Combellick, 97, of Gettysburg, passed away Wednesday, April 12, 2017 at the Avera Gettysburg Hospital.

Irene Wolf was born May 18, 1919 on the family farm, north of Java, to Gottlieb and Caroline (Harer) Wolf. She attended school in Java.

Irene helped on the family farm until marrying Chris Kolasch. They had one son, Rueben. In 1949, Irene was united in marriage to Felix Kormendy. They made their home south of Java; where she helped with the farming and raised their son, Erwin. When Felix's health started to decline, they moved to Bowdle. Felix passed away in 1977, and Irene remained there until 1979 at which time she moved to Gettysburg. In 1980, she married Wilbur Combellick and together they made their home in Akaska. Wilbur passed away in 1988, and Irene moved back to Gettysburg to be near her son.

Irene was a member of the Medicine Rock Senior Center. She enjoyed crocheting, playing cards, and collecting buttons, dolls and angels.

Irene's life will be cherished by her son, Erwin (Janet) Kormendy of Gettysburg; her grandchildren: David (Sally) Kormendy of Rapid City and Timothy (Michaele) Kormendy of Sturgis; step grandchildren: Brandy (Brad) Cole of Gettysburg and Joe (Jessica) Hall of Vermillion; great grandchildren: Zarian and Tanner Kormendy; and step great grandchildren: Kali and Kori Hansen, and Jeffrey Hall.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two husbands; one son, Ruben Kolasch; and three siblings: William and Edwin Wolf, and Esther Quandahl.

The Lord's Prayer

*Our Father which art in heaven
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive
those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil;
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, forever and ever.
Amen.*
