

To Those I Love And
Those Who Love Me

*When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.*

*I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.*

*So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.*

*And then, when you come this way alone....
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"WELCOME HOME"*

Delores Hageman, 86, of Hoven, passed away Saturday, May 13, 2017 at Avera St Luke's Hospital, Aberdeen.

Delores Ione Bertha, daughter of Paul and Esther (Schlecht) Bertha, was born in Hoven, SD on October 28, 1930. She was raised in Hoven where she received her formal education at St. Bernard's Parochial School and Hoven High School, graduating with the class of 1948.

Delores worked as a book-keeper for her father at his garage, and then later worked for Bill Meyer. Following that, she was the book-keeper for the Hoven Coop, working for many years until her retirement.

On September 12, 1950, Delores married the love of her life, Gillis Hageman. She was a member of St. Anthony's Catholic Church and St. Anthony's Altar Society. Delores loved setting puzzles, making pot-holders and making beautiful quilts. Those who knew "Dee", as she was known to many, will always remember her beautiful smile and the warm welcome she extended to all those who came to her home.

Delores' life will be cherished by her husband of 66 years, Gillis Hageman of Hoven; two daughters: Donna (Bill) Zweber of Hoven and Sharon Haverty of Aberdeen; two sons: Daniel (Angie) Hageman and Dave (Ann) Hageman, all of Hoven; 13 grandchildren; nine great grandchildren; and three sisters: Rita Turner, Betty Giese, and Mary (Harlan) Rausch.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brothers: Robert and William "Skippy"; father and mother-in-law: Albert and Margaret Hageman; brothers-in-law: James Hoffman, Allen Turner, and Dean Giese; sister-in-law, Beatrice Arbach; and son-in-law, Martin Haverty.
