

Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part. God has you in His keeping,
I have you in my heart.

God's finger touched her, and she slipped away
From earth's dark shadows to a brighter day;
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed her weary eyes, and
Whispered, "Peace Be Thine."
To a beautiful garden this friend has gone.
To a land of perfect rest;
Though she is gone, she still lives on
In the garden of memory.

Wilma J. Carr, 87, of Agar, passed away Sunday, October 21, 2018 at the Avera Dougherty Hospice House, Sioux Falls.

Wilma Crofutt was born August 28, 1931 in Gettysburg, SD to Newell and Velva (Machan) Crofutt. She grew up in Gettysburg where she received her education, graduating from Gettysburg High School.

On July 24, 1950 Wilma married Edward Carr of Agar. They made their home on the family farm where they raised their three children: Nancy, Barb and Tim. Wilma worked alongside of Ed as well as with Ag Statistics and the Agar Post Office.

She was active in the Agar Methodist Church where she held various positions in the UMC women and the council. She also gave her time to the county election board for several years, was a member of the Agar Extension Club, served as counselor at the Methodist Church Camp, was a 4-H leader and also volunteered whenever anyone in the community needed a hand. Wilma's hobbies included: crafts, reading, gardening, working in her flower beds, knitting, crocheting, and sewing.

Wilma's life will be cherished by husband of 68 years, Ed Carr, Avera Oahe Manor, Gettysburg; her children: Nancy Prasek (CL Bass) of Spearfish, Tim (Pam) Carr and Barb Bryant, both of Sioux Falls; grandchildren: Mathew Prasek, Seattle, WA, Megan (Chris) Lipp, Spearfish, Corey (Tiffany) Carr, Pierre, Dennis (Ken) Bryant, Lidgerwood, ND, Jessica (Justin) Ihnen, Sioux Falls, and Jennifer (Allen) Corbin, Sioux Falls; 12 great grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; sister, Elaine Porter; brother, Newell "Son" Crofutt; and four great grandchildren.

The family would like to thank the Avera Oahe Manor, Avera Gettysburg Hospital, Avera McKennan Hospital Sioux Falls and the Dougherty Hospice House for the care and attention to Wilma while in their care.

In Loving Memory
