The LORD is my Shepherd;

I shall not want

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters,

He restoreth my soul;

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil,

for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me

all the days of my life

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Sarah G. Hatling, 90, of Gettysburg, passed away Saturday, January 25, 2020 at Avera Oahe Manor, Gettysburg.

Sarah Guylyne Rieben was born May 11, 1929 in Webster, SD to Godfred and Mable (Williams) Rieben. She received her education while living in Webster, SD, EauClaire, WI and graduated from Sisseton High School in 1947.

Following graduation, Sarah moved to California to stay with family before returning to Sisseton where she worked as a nurse's aide for the Sisseton Community Hospital. On May 26, 1949 she was united in marriage to Gerald Hatling. Gerald was enlisted with the United States Army and together they moved to Manhattan, KS where he was stationed at Fort Riley. They spent a few years moving during his service time prior to his discharge which included Alaska where Sarah worked for the Alaskan Airlines as a stewardess. Upon Gerald's discharge, they returned to South Dakota where they lived in Aberdeen, Milbank and Pierre.

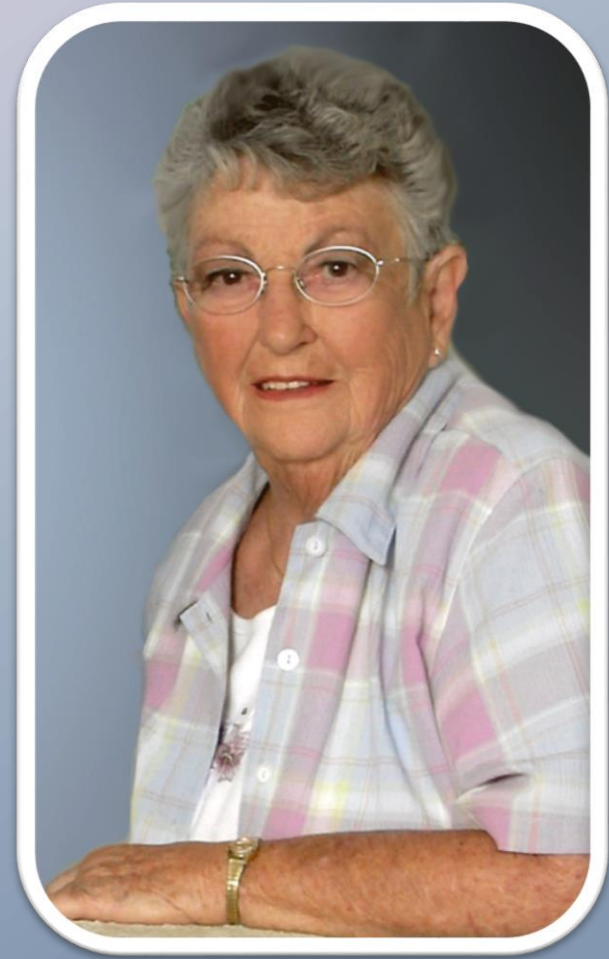

Sarah and Gerald were inseparable. They raised their family together and enjoyed day to day life together as well. Friends learned if you invited one it meant the other was coming along. Along with their boys, they enjoyed hunting, fishing, training dogs, golfing and traveling. In 1984, Gerald retired and together they spent the next 20 years wintering in Gold Canyon, AZ and their summers at Pickerel Lake, SD. In the early 2010's, they retired to Gettysburg where she has lived until the time of her passing.

Sarah is survived by her husband, Gerald Hatling, Gettysburg; sons: Roger (Mary) Hatling, Pierre and Timothy (Susan) Hatling, Des Moines, IA; grandchildren: Brandon (Julie) Hatling, Belle Fourche, Kent (Melissa) Hatling, Pine Haven, WY, Jenny (Seth) Adkins, Box Elder, and Jerrid (Carolyn) Hatling, Des Moines, IA; and her great grandchildren: Reagan and Owen Hatling, Carter, Tanner, Bridger and Archer Hatling, Summer Adkins, and Penelope and Eleanore Hatling.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Guy and Mable Rieben; and one sister, Betty Rieben.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be directed to the Avera Oahe Manor, Activities Department, 700 E. Garfield Ave, Gettysburg, SD 57442.
