

Wilbert E. Fenger was born June 30, 1937 in Hoven, South Dakota. The family lived in Gettysburg, then moved to the country west of town when he was age 9. He attended Gettysburg schools and several country schools, including Artichoke School. He later attended basic training at Fort Leonard Wood in the Missouri Ozarks and served in the Army Reserve National Guard from 1962 to 1964.

Wilbert helped his stepfather, Miles Parks, with farming as a young man. He began his own farming west of Gettysburg at a young age. He mostly grew wheat and corn and was committed to the practice of summer fallow. He raised sheep in the early years.

Wilbert married Mary McQuiston on January 7, 1967 at Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Pierre, South Dakota. They moved a few miles east of the Missouri River to their country home, which they made their homestead for more than 50 years. Wilbert was well known for the beautiful shelterbelts that he planted north and south of the farm. His meticulous care of the trees earned him the Potter County Tree Conservation Award for good stewardship of newly planted trees. Like his Grandpa and Grandma Fix, he had a love of gardening, with his specialty being tomatoes, beets, and watermelon.

Along with his family, Wilbert always shared the farm with a series of well-loved dogs who often joined him in the pickup when going out to the fields. He also spent a lot of time feeding and caring for the many birds and squirrels who lived in the farm's abundant trees.

For fun he enjoyed riding his four wheelers, especially going "rumbling" with family at Mallo Camp near Newcastle, Wyoming. He also enjoyed attending polka fests in South Dakota and North Dakota. He especially liked numbers by musician Victor Wald. Along with the music, he and Mary always enjoyed the good German food that would be served. His favorite old-time song was the Little Girl's Waltz. He once said he would have easily given a quarter of land in exchange for learning how to dance. He also enjoyed the Cajun music played at the polka fests, especially the music of the Dakota Rangers, as well as Christian music.

Wilbert owned a restored '57 Corvette and belonged to the Capital City Corvette Club in Pierre. His car was often featured in local parades and displayed at car shows.

He belonged to the Sacred Heart Catholic Church as well as local, state and national Right to Life groups.

He is survived by his loving wife Mary; son, Dean of Phoenix, Arizona; son, Darin of Yuma, Arizona; stepbrother Pat (Lisa) Parks of Kennewick, Wash., and numerous cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Wilbert was preceded in death by his father, Eddie A. Fenger; mother, Anna (Fix) Parks; stepfather, Miles Parks; stepmother, Rose Fenger; sister, Geraldine (Kenny) Oban; and sister, Lorraine (Glen) Johnson.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered Joy
A friendship shared,
a laugh, a kiss Ah, yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life has been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart and share with me
God wanted me now, He set me FREE!
