

When I Must Leave You

By Helen Steiner Rice

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please go on bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same—
Spend not your life in empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways—
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.

LaJean Hansen was born at home in Lowry, SD to William and Bertha Holzwarth on May 28, 1935. She grew up helping on the family farm and Holzwarth Service Station. She attended Lowry elementary school and graduated from Gettysburg High School in 1953.

After graduation, LaJean worked for Northwestern Bell before marrying Elmer (Johnnie) Hansen in 1954. They made their first home in Huron, SD, and had three children, Karla, Kyle and Kirk. A career move took the family to California, Illinois, and Michigan before they made their way back to Gettysburg, SD, where she helped establish Hansen Plumbing in 1975.

She enjoyed attending school and sporting events, gardening, family gatherings, and just putzing around. She was a kind, generous, and soft-spoken woman who was strong in her faith.
