

Final Harvest

He was bound to the land
From the day of his birth,
Nurtured, sustained,
By the soil he grew,
And his life, like his furrows,
Ran straight and true.

In faith, each spring,
He planted the seeds
In hope, to reap
His family needs
With patience, he waited
For the harvest to come.
To gather the fruits
Of his labor home.

Ever turning seasons,
The years sped past
Till the final harvest
Came at last.

Then claimed anew
By the beloved sod,
He was gathered home
To be with God.

Ed Robbennolt, 82, of Gettysburg, passed away Wednesday, December 22, 2021 at his home following a short battle with cancer.

Edward William Robbennolt was born April 27, 1939, to Max and Mary (McDonnell) Robbennolt in Gettysburg, S.D. He grew up on the family farm southwest of town and graduated from Gettysburg High School in 1957. Following school, he enlisted in the U.S. Army and served two years in Germany.

Ed married Judith Jones on April 16, 1963, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Gettysburg. They made their home in Gettysburg and he joined his father, and brother, in the family farming business.

Ed was active in his community and served on several boards including the Gettysburg School Board, Potter County ASCS committee, Cam Wal Board, and Gettysburg Hospital Board.

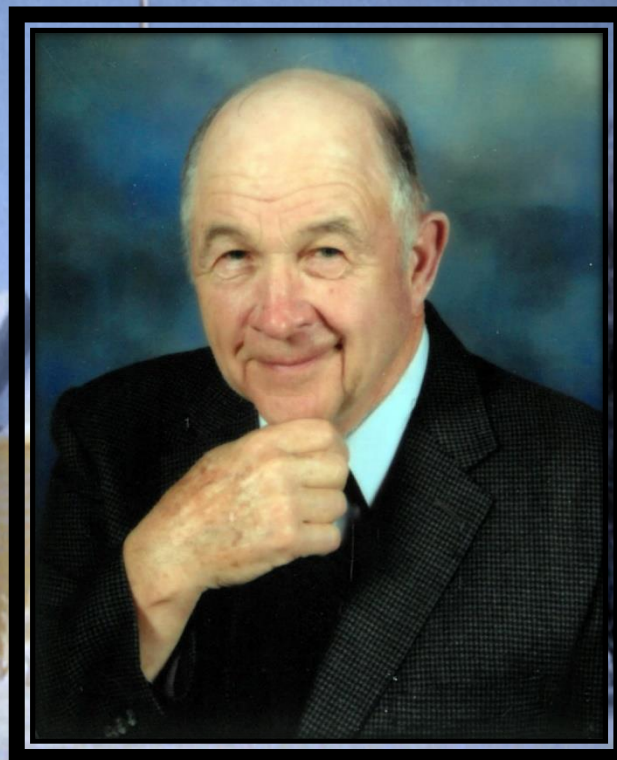

His love of family, farming, and community were the focus of his life. He also enjoyed collecting and restoring vintage tractors, classic cars, and car racing. He was a talented metal craftsmen and master mechanic.

Ed is survived by his wife of 58 years, Judy; sons: David (Alison) of Yuba City, CA, Daniel (Blanca) of Sioux Falls, and Brian (Rena) of Gettysburg; nine grandchildren: Lauren A. (Ryan) Caughlan, Kayla (Cory) Hughes, Jaicee Robbennolt, Ryan Robbennolt, Allen (Abby) Robbennolt, Jasen (Lauren) Robbennolt, Marysa (Sam) Van Voorst, Jenna Robbennolt, and Katie Robbennolt; and two great-grandchildren, Mavilynn Thompson and Lauren J. Caughlan.

He was preceded in death by his parents: Max, and Mary; brother, Gene; sister-in-law, Donna; and great-grandson, Adam.

Memorials may be directed to Keep Hope Local, 127 Hilltop Dr., Gettysburg, SD 57442 or Gettysburg Area Community Foundation, PO Box 33, Gettysburg, SD 57442.
