

When I Am Gone

When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be thankful for our many beautiful years.
I gave to you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I travel on alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It is only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you'll hear,
All my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say...

"Welcome Home"

Edward "Bullnose" Zweber, 66, of Gettysburg, passed away Tuesday, April 11, 2023, at Avera Gettysburg Hospital.

Edward Joseph Zweber, Sr. was born August 20, 1956, in Redfield, South Dakota to John and Cora (Thompson) Zweber. He attended country school through the 8th grade and later earned his G.E.D. He enlisted in the United States Army in 1977 and was honorably discharged in 1980.

On November 14, 1975, Ed married Cindy Spicer. They welcomed two children, Katie on January 13, 1979, and Edward Jr. on December 5, 1979.

Bullnose started working for Ida Fulkerson at the Fireside and went on to work for the Redfield State School, Emil Worm digging wells, and then Tower Systems. Later he started working at CHS in Gettysburg and dedicated 20 years until his retirement.

In his free time, Bullnose enjoyed hunting, fishing, playing cards and spending time with family and friends.

Ed will be remembered by his children: Katie Zweber of Gettysburg and Edward "Bud" Zweber of Dickinson, ND; mother, Cora Zweber of Gettysburg; grandchildren: DJ Long, Caleb Long, and Corbin Zweber; great grandson, Sebastian Long; siblings: Dan Zweber, Peggy (Keith) Eidam, LuAnn (Barry) Eldeen, Tim (Cheri) Zweber, Mary Zweber, Robert (Jani) Zweber, and Jamie Zweber; and numerous nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father, John Zweber; wife, Cindy; sister, Colleen; grandparents: Cornelia "Granny" and George Thompson, Don F. and Margaret Zweber; and several nieces, nephews, aunts, and uncles.

In Loving Memory

Ed Zweber
