

In Loving Memory Of Gladys Mae Hagry

May 1, 1934
Denison, Iowa

April 29, 2023
Gettysburg, South Dakota

*Someday, dear Lord,
I shall stand before You,
new-clothed and unafraid,
rejoicing in Your presence, on reunion with those I have loved and in contemplation of the exquisite splendor of Your realm.*

*Grief and sorrows
shall have melted like summer snows,
and I, knowing as I am known,
shall move
through eternal sunshine.*

Gladys M. Hagny, 88, of Gettysburg, passed away Saturday, April 29, 2023, at Avera Oahe Manor, Gettysburg, with her daughters sleeping near her.

Gladys Mae Walde was born May 1, 1934, at Denison IA to William and Lillian (Ruberg) Walde. She was baptized May 10, 1934. Gladys attended East Boyer #8 Country School and Denison High School.

On March 4, 1967, Gladys was united in marriage to Philip Hagny at Grace Lutheran Church, Denver, CO. They lived on their rural Gettysburg family farm and raised their family there. Philip and Gladys were blessed with one son and two daughters and were married for 53 years.

Gladys did administrative and other office work in Denver from 1952 until 1967.

Gladys was a member of Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Gettysburg. Throughout her life she enjoyed teaching Sunday school in Iowa, Denver, and at St. John's in Agar. After that she led Bible study classes locally, making a total of over 57 years of leading classes.

Gladys enjoyed studying the Bible, quilting, watercolor painting, playing cards, and Scrabble. Gladys enjoyed traveling with her husband, and they took memorable trips to Russia, Costa Rica, Australia, New Zealand, Chile, Argentina, Mexico, and Canada.

Her life will be cherished by her children: Sara (Eric) French of Sioux Falls, SD, Emilie (Tony) Downs of Denver, CO; three grandchildren: Edward, Jillian, and Miles French; one sister, Marilyn Yoakum, Russell, IA; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Gladys was preceded in death by her husband, Philip Hagny; her son, Matthew Hagny; her parents; brothers: Walter, Raymond, Edward, Virgil, and Leonard; and sisters: Helen Hinze, Ruby Jahn, Wilma Walde, Lillian Fastenau, Marlene Brudenell, and LaDonna Walde.

Although she will be dearly missed, we are reassured that she is in heaven with Jesus, where we will see her again.

Memorials in Gladys' honor may be directed to Matt Hagny No-Till Scholarship Foundation (www.exapta.com/matt-hagny-scholarship), Emmanuel Lutheran Church, 601 E Logan Ave, Gettysburg, SD 57442, or Zion Lutheran Church, 1004 1st Ave S, Denison, IA 51442.

In Loving Memory
