

David Silverberg, 95 years, 6 months, of Highmore, passed on Thursday, November 25, 2010 at Highmore Health in Highmore, South Dakota.

David was born May 28, 1915, in Tyndall, South Dakota to Jake and Lutske Silverberg, both of Dutch heritages. The family moved to Tripp, Wessington Springs, and then when David was 12, they moved north of Highmore in Hyde County. This is where he grew up with his three brothers and one sister.

As a youth, his mode of transportation was riding horses. He bought his first new car in 1950, which was six years after his marriage to Carol Lomheim of Agar on November 30, 1944. This union brought to them one son and three daughters.

David considered himself a cowhand as he was in the Hereford/Limousin cattle business for 50 years. He retired from ranching in 1979. David and his wife, Carol moved into their hometown, Highmore, the fall of 1993.

David was a township assessor for many years, County Farmer's Union president for 20 years, and a director in Central Farm Mutual Insurance Company for 9 years.

He attended 28 State Horseshow Tournaments and 6 World Horseshoe Tournaments. He was the state champion for 5 years in the elder, an over 70 age class. In 1981, he won the World Horseshoe Tournament in Genola, Minnesota; and in 2000, he won the 70 year and older class, World Horseshoe Tournament in Bismarck, North Dakota and was inducted into the National Hall of Fame of Horseshoe Pitchers in 2000.

When the Senior Athletic Games began in 1984, David joined in and competed in several events. Some of his favorite events through the years were horseshoes, pool and bowling. In 2008, he was named S.D. Outstanding Athlete of the Year. In September of 2010, he was inducted into the S.D. Senior Athletic Games Hall of Fame.

David's main hobbies were painting pictures and playing pool at the Senior Center. He has many beautiful paintings of a variety of scenes. David and Carol also enjoyed 40 years of square dancing and were avid travelers. David also had a love for bowling, fishing, hunting, gardening, golf and playing cards.

David leaves behind his wife of 66 years, Carol Silverberg of Highmore; three children: son, Timothy David (Kathy) Silverberg, their children, Matthew and McKenzie of Highmore and Tim's daughter, Dawn Dircks of Minneapolis, MN; daughter, Julia Fae Silverberg Sylvers, her children, David and Bryce of Andover, MN; and daughter, Kaye Lynn (Dan) Neiss of Houston, TX, their children, Monique (Lance) Malmgren, Andria (John) Christensen, and Natalie (George) Bunton; 7 great grandchildren; siblings: John Silverberg and Janette Silverberg (Kubat) Patterson; 13 nieces; 9 nephews; and many many friends.

TO THOSE I LOVE AND THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

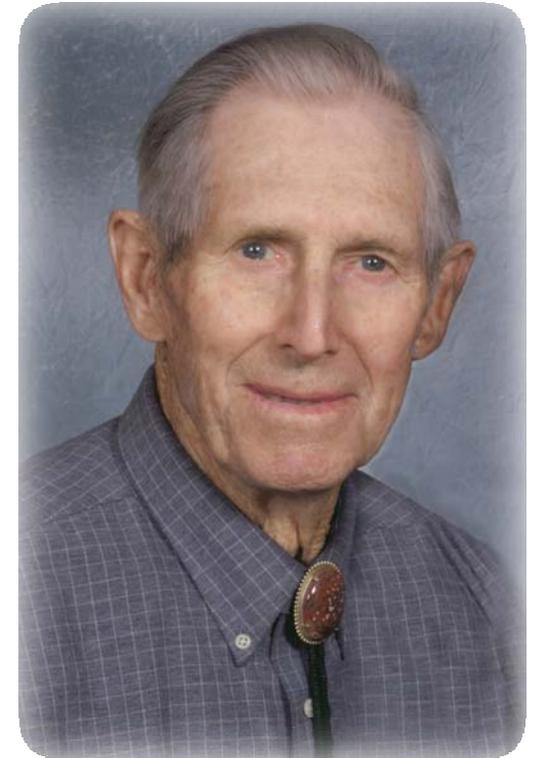

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you come this way alone....
I'll greet you with a smile and say
“WELCOME HOME”
