

*God grant me the serenity
to accept the things I cannot change;
courage to change the things I can;
and wisdom to know the difference.*

*Living one day at a time;
Enjoying one moment at a time;
Accepting hardships as the pathway to peace;
Taking, as He did, this sinful world
as it is, not as I would have it;
Trusting that He will make all things right
if I surrender to His Will;
That I may be reasonably happy in this life
and supremely happy with Him
Forever in the next.
Amen.*

Celebrating A Life

Patrick Frederick Hale

1955 - 2012

Patrick Hale, 56, of Highmore, passed away Thursday, March 29, 2012 at his home.

Patrick Frederick Hale was born September 10, 1955 in Miller, South Dakota to Frederick and Elaine (Hamlin) Hale. He attended Holabird School and graduated from Highmore High School in 1973. On May 30, 1974, he married Babby Klebsch. To this union, one son, Heath was born. Throughout Pat's life, he worked with his dad as a plumber for Hale's Plumbing, Heating and Electric; for Kroeplins at Highmore Plumbing & Heating; the Highmore city maintenance department; and as a custodian for Quoin Financial Bank.

Playing with his registered Papillon dog and loyal friend Babe, working on the Javelin, gardening, and spending time with his grandkids, were some of Pat's favorite pastimes.

Grateful to have shared in Pat's life is his son, Heath (Danelle) Hale and grandkids, Kassie and Dawson Hale, all of Highmore; mother and step-father, Elaine (Les) Ashdown; his dog, Babe; siblings: Peggy (Craig) Fausett of Highmore, Allan Hale of Tripp, and Robert (Lesley) Hale of Yankton; his aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and numerous cousins.

Preceding him in death was his father, Frederick Hale; paternal grandparents, Bill and Marie Hale; maternal grandparents, Wallace and Elsie Hamlin; and a sister-in-law, Billie Hale.

Following the committal at the cemetery, everyone is invited to the East Wing of the Auditorium for lunch and fellowship with the family.
