

WALKING WITH GRANDMA

*I like to walk with Grandma
Her steps are short like mine
She doesn't say "Now hurry up,"
She always takes her time.*

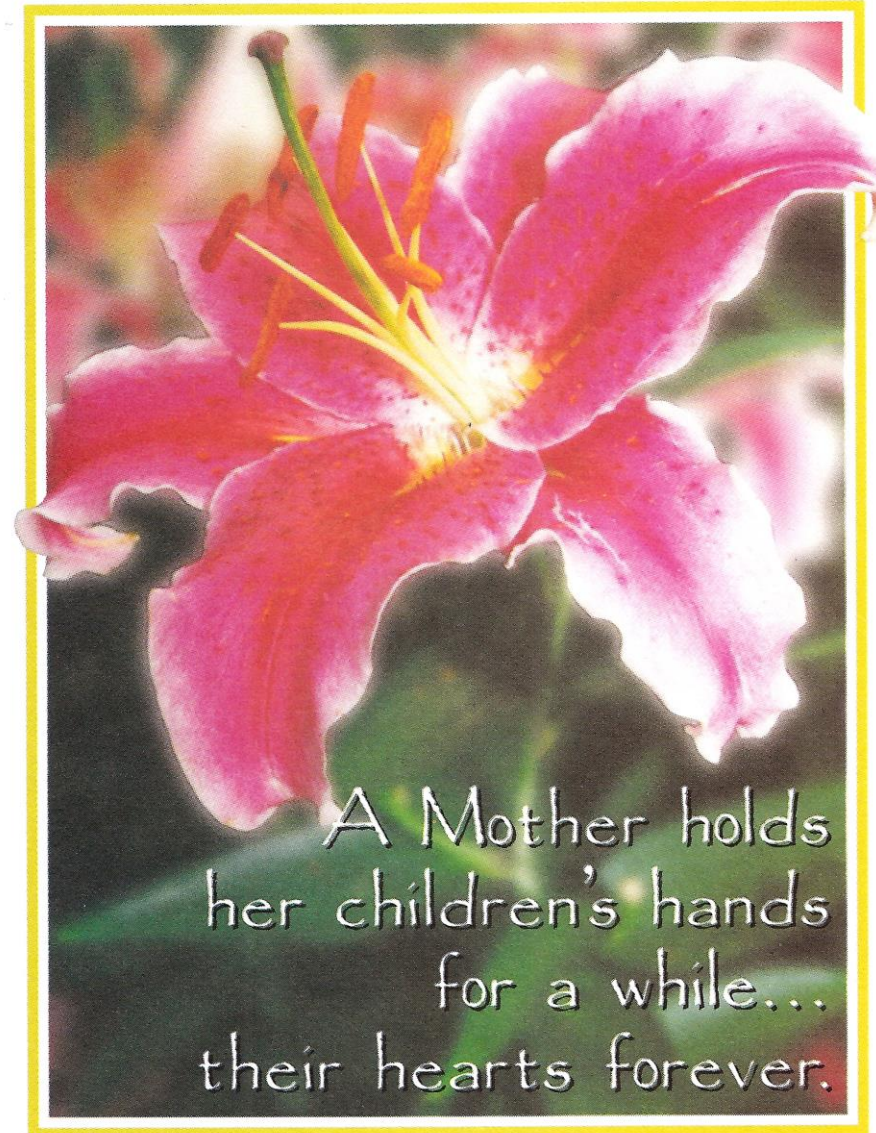

*I like to walk Grandma
Her eyes see things like mine do
Wee pebbles bright, a funny cloud,
Half hidden drops of dew
Most people have to hurry
They do not stop and see
I'm glad that God made Grandma
Unrushed and young like me.*

MOM

*I fell, and you picked me up,
I cried, and you wiped my tears
I was lost, and you brought me home
I wanted fame
and you were my audience.
I desired a friend,
and you were there.
I needed Love,
and you handed me your heart.
We'll Love you always,*

Love, your children

Imogene Mary Hieb, 90, of Harrold, went to her Heavenly home on Friday, February 7, 2014 at the Highmore Health, Highmore, SD.

Imogene Mary was born February 27, 1923 on the family farm three miles south of Holabird, South Dakota to William Arthur and Lola Mabel (Harter) Ellerton. She was the seventh of eight children. She received her education at the South Holabird country school through the eighth grade and graduated from Highmore High School with the class of 1940. She never was able to fulfill her dream of being a teacher.

On March 7, 1943 she was united in marriage to Leo Hieb at the Methodist Parsonage in Highmore, SD. To this union five children were born. They became members of the Highmore United Methodist Church in April of 1943 then transferring to the Harrold United Methodist Church in 1947.

Imogene and Leo lived with their family on a farm southwest of Harrold from 1947 to July 1993, when they moved into the Pleasant View Apartments in Harrold, SD. She was a devoted wife, mother and helping hand on the farm. She was a lifetime member of the South Dakota Farmers Union, serving as local and county Educational Director, and county President. She belonged to several organizations including: the R Doing Club, KYB Club, United Methodist Church Board, Harrold Senior Center as Treasurer, Eastern Star member for 25+ years, holding several offices, Highmore Health Auxiliary past Treasurer, and U.M.W. where she held several offices, including President at the time of her death.

Her enjoyment was spending time with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, doing 1000 or more piece puzzles and crossword puzzles, taking care of her plants, visiting with friends and neighbors, and cooking for unexpected guests.

Grateful to have shared in her life are her children: William Hieb of Armour, SD, Kathleen (Jerry) Speirs of Hill City, SD, Kelvin Hieb of Rapid City, SD and Judy (Larry) Schnabel of Eureka, SD; five grandchildren: Doug Speirs, Christine Walz, Shawn (Emily) Speirs, Theresa (Jason) Robinson and Thomas (Meghan) Schnabel; 10 great-grandchildren: Casey Hieb, Justina, Dante, and Taya Robinson; Henry and Carl Walz; Madison Speirs; Peyton, Mallory, and Danyelle Schnabel; five step-grandchildren and their families: Robbie (Dana) Geuther and family, Kristi Geuther and family, and Kristie Wyly and family, Patrick Covey, and Shana Hinsin and family; one brother, Wayne (Alma) Ellerton of Ft. Myer, Florida; two sisters-in-law: Deloris Ellerton of Huron, SD and Florence Ellerton of Custer, SD.; numerous nieces, nephews, and a very special friend, Ellen Ramsey of Harrold, SD.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Leo in March, 2003; one son: Gerald Lee in 1961; one grandson: Travis Lee Hieb in 1998; four brothers: Raymond, Claire, and two in infancy: Lloyd and Lyle; and two sisters: Fern Johnson and Vivian LaFurge
