Memories

Bobby Houdek, 80, of Highmore, passed away Wednesday, March 16, 2016 at Avera St. Mary's Hospital in Pierre.

Bob was born December 15, 1935 in Orient, South Dakota to Henry "Bud" and Melva (Leafgreen) Houdek. He attended country school until the fourth grade and then attended school in Highmore, graduating in 1954.

On September 12, 1954, Bob married Janice Fieldsend in Belfield, North Dakota; to this union five children were born: Tim, Terry, Rob, Randy, and Janell. Bob and Janice owned and operated an Amoco gas station and convenience store and was a bulk oil dealer for 30 years. Many kids looked forward to Bob handing out gum when he delivered fuel to their farm.

Bob was a 26-year member of the Highmore Volunteer Fire Department and assisted in improvements to the Highmore Golf Course over the years. Bob enjoyed years of pheasant and deer hunting, golfing, and fishing. In retirement, Bob and Janice enjoyed traveling, spending time at their cabin in the Black Hills, and watching their grandkid's activities.

Honor Loving Memory

His memory will be cherished by his wife, Janice of Highmore; children: Tim (Cheryl) of Sioux Falls, Terry of Mitchell, Rob (Diane) of Spearfish, Randy (Deb) of Highmore, and Janell Miller of Huron; grandchildren: Angela (Jamin) Ratzlaff, Marcus Houdek, Melissa Houdek, Derrick (Kristin) Houdek, Karsten (Rachel) Houdek, Hayden Houdek, Jordan Houdek, Rachel Houdek, and Landon Miller; great grandchildren: Lila Ratzlaff, Henry Ratzlaff, and Lydia Houdek; three sisters-in-law; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother, Wayne; and son-in-law, Jerry Miller.
