

In Loving Memory
CELEBRATING A LIFE

The LORD is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me
lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my
soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.

I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies
Thou anointest my head with oil; My cup runneth over Surely goodness & mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
- Psalm 23

George Edward Sharp was born on January 21, 1939 to Elizabeth (Wemmering) and Donald B. Sharp in Highmore, SD. George attended Highmore High School where he played football and basketball as a guard. He graduated in 1957 and started work at Jack and Jill as a meat cutter. George was a butcher for over 60 years. After Jack and Jill, he went to work at Red Owl where he received the "1970 Market Managers of the Year" award. George went to work for McDonald's Meat and Locker Service and worked there for over 22 years. After McDonald's closed, George went to work at Mashek's Food Center where he cut meat until he "retired" in 2016.

George married Cheryl Ellsworth in 1973 and they were blessed with two girls, Kristen Michelle and Sarah Renae. George was very proud of his girls and their accomplishments.

George was a member of the Highmore Volunteer Firefighters for over 20 years and was a member of the Highmore City Counsel. He enjoyed hunting, playing softball and golf. George also enjoyed fishing and had a memorable trip with Gary McDonald when they returned home with a 15 ½-lb. northern that measured 41 inches in length. George was an avid Pirates fan and enjoyed attending his grandchildren's sporting events. In his later years, George was most known for his early morning drives around the Highmore community.

George is survived by his daughters, Kristen (Ryan) Rittel of Highmore, and Sarah Theophilus of Sioux Falls; sister-in-law, Lois Sharp of Ft. Pierre; niece, Nikki Sharp of Pierre; his grandchildren, Kaitlyn (Clinton) McKee of Highmore, Reis Rittel of Highmore, Colby Rittel of Highmore, Charlie Theophilus and Adeline Theophilus of Sioux Falls; and great-grandchildren, Kenley and Carter McKee.

George is preceded in death by his parents, Donald and Elizabeth; and brothers, Donald Sharp and Robert Sharp.
