March 1, 1931 - September 5, 2023

You can shed tears that she is gone
 Or you can smile because she has lived
 You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left Your heart can be empty because you can't see her Or you can be full of the love that you shared You can turn your back on tomorrow
 and live yesterday
 Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
 You can remember her and only that she is gone Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back Or you can do what she would want:
 smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Renata Cowman, 92, of Highmore, passed away Tuesday, September 5, 2023, at Avera McKennan Hospital, Sioux Falls.

Renata was born in Zell, South Dakota on March 1, 1931, to Agnes (Goad) and John B. Weiss. After graduating from Redfield High School, she met Jerry Cowman while working at the dime store in Highmore. They married on September 4, 1952. Their marriage was blessed with seven children. They were married 63 years when Jerry passed in 2016.

They spent most of their married years in Highmore. For a time, they owned the Frosty Freeze where Renata honed her potato salad and coleslaw-making skills. Renata also served many years in the Office of Hyde County Director of Equalization and later as a Hyde County Commissioner. As a result of those years, the courthouse gang was an important part of her extended family which grew to include the Brueggeman family for whom she provided childcare service.

She loved her faith, time with family and friends, playing cards, preparing meals (including gravy), singing, and giving gifts. She was especially happy when spending time with her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren who referred to her as "Great Grandma," "Big Grandma," and "Memaw". Not to forget one of her favorite pastimes was "twinning" with her favorite sister, Maxine. In addition, she spent much time at the Senior Citizen Center, and stopping at her favorite gathering places; she had a unique ability to attract invaluable and lifelong friends, and rarely spent time alone.

Renata is survived by her children, Jeryl (Rod) Bean of Belle Fourche, Jack (Jan) of Spearfish, Deb (Herb) Jones of Yankton, Dianne (Jimmy) Roberts of Hulett, WY, Jerald Price "J.P." (Jody) of Moorcroft, WY, and Joni (Rod Ruen) of Pierre; sister, Maxine Myers of Alpena, MI; sisters-in-law: Peg Cowman of Indian Wells, CA and Patty Weiss of Hot Springs; 16 grandchildren; 26 great grandchildren; and many nephews and nieces.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Jerry; son, James; grandson, John K. Cowman; and brothers: Raphael (Neva) Weiss, Willard (Jean) Weiss, Delbert (Lois) Weiss, and Jack Weiss; and brother and sister-in-law: Jerry Myers and Sharon Cowman.
