Celebrating THE Life OF

Casey & Luella Schultz

On February 21, 1962, Faithe Luella Crossman married the love of her life, Donald "Casey" Schultz. They lived their entire married life on the same street in Miller Luella had been since 1940. They were not in the same house, but in the house next door. Casey loved pointing out that his birthday was on the 20th of February, they married on the 21st, and Luella's birthday is on the 22nd, so they completed their celebrating within three days.

Casey and Lu attended the Miller Presbyterian Church. Luella was confirmed and joined the church in 1947 and Casey was confirmed in his faith in 1953. Luella and Casey helped make the banners and decorate the sanctuary for many years.

Lu was a charter member of the inner light group, belonged to the Miller Community Garden Club, and the Historical Society, and was on the Miller Housing Committee. She kept the names of every graduate or anyone who attended Miller School from 1904 until her passing.

Casey was involved in many organizations. He served with the Lions organization, the Historical Society, as a Co-Chairman of the Tourism committee, the On Hand Development committee, the Civic and Commerce and was a City Council member for several years. Casey was the Chairman of the Hand County Centennial Committee from 1987-1989 and worked on the organization for the 2000 "All School Reunion".

Lu and Casey had a swimming pool in their backyard. Lu's greatest enjoyment was helping others to learn how to swim and Casey was right there helping take care of it.

They were major promoters of the Miller Rustlers and were very proud to be a part of the Miller community.

Lu and Casey had never spent a Christmas apart and even in death they were together for Christmas day.
