

The Farmer's Creed

We believe a person's greatest possession is their dignity and that no calling bestows this more abundantly than farming.

We believe hard work and honest sweat are the building blocks of a person's character.

We believe that farming, despite its hardships and disappointments, is the most honest and honorable way a person can spend their days on this earth.

We believe that by our toil we are giving more to the world than we are taking from it, an honor that does not come to all people.

We believe when persons grow old and sum up their days, they should be able to stand tall and feel pride in the life they have lived.

We believe in farming because it makes all this possible.

Albert Jones, 102, of Miller, passed away Monday, April 25, 2011 at the Good Samaritan Society in Miller.

Albert David Jones was born April 25, 1909 at home on the family farm north of Vayland, SD to David and Lillian Jones. As a young boy he worked on the family farm also for farmers in the Vayland area.

On June 19, 1932, he married Violet Gilland in Gann Valley, SD. They bought a farm south of Miller where he lived until his retirement. Albert had a great joy for life, especially farming.

Albert is survived by several nieces.

Preceding him in death were his parents; his son, Kentner; his wife, Violet; and two brothers, Harrold and Ronald.
