

*the shadows lengthen,
the evening comes...
and my work is done*

God's Farm

*God needs someone in heaven
To plow and plant the rows
And when He calls on me,
I know that I must go.
Remember that I won't be gone,
I will just be away,
Working on God's farm
'till we're united again one day.
There will be no storms in heaven
And the fields are long and straight.
When it's time for you to join me,
I'll be waiting inside heaven's gate.
Remember until the day arrives,
When once more our lives we'll share,
To look in the green fields growing
And you'll see me working there.*

John Engelmann, 91, of Miller, passed away, Friday, September 3, 2010 at his home.

John was born November 14, 1918 to John and Tena (Gortmaker) Engelmann on the family farm in Hand County, South Dakota. He lived his entire life on the family farm and in the same house that he was born in, is where he passed away.

On July 2, 1962, he was united in marriage to Betty Shepherd in Pierre, South Dakota. To this union three children were born, Tadd, Taye, and JoDee.

John was an avid reader and enjoyed keeping track of the weather and other information. He enjoyed having people stop by and visit even just to talk for a while. He also liked to keep up on the news and things that were happening.

John served on the Ohio Township board for 61 years. On July 6, 1996, the Engelmann farm was recognized as a South Dakota Century Farm that was settled by his parents and maintained by John.

He is survived by his son, Tadd Engelmann of Miller, SD; daughters: Taye Miller of Spokane, WA and JoDee Engelmann of Miller, SD; brothers, Paul Engelmann of Miller, SD and George Engelmann of Ree Heights, SD; four grandchildren, Justin Engelmann, Christina Engelmann, Nicole and Heather Miller; and two great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Betty in 1995; sister, Sylvia; and his parents, John and Tena.
