

Marilyn K. Danburg, 61, of Miller, passed away Tuesday, February 22, 2011 at the Good Samaritan Society, Miller.

Marilyn Kay was born July 20, 1949 at the Hand County Memorial Hospital to Raymond and Rose (Martinmaas) Danburg. She was baptized at St. Ann's Catholic Church in Miller on July 21, 1949. At the age of one, she was stricken with influenza meningitis. Marilyn received treatment at several hospitals for a period of time and then became a resident of the Prairie Good Samaritan Center for 42 years.

Listening to music and singing were some of Marilyn's favorite pastimes.

Grateful to have shared in her life was her mother, Rose of Miller, South Dakota; three brothers: Jerry (Barb) of Pueblo, Colorado, Larry (Dee) of Miller, South Dakota and Dan of Aberdeen, South Dakota; one sister: Roxanne of Milford, Delaware; and many friends, relatives and caregivers at the Good Samaritan Society.

Preceding her in death was her father, Raymond.

In Memory

FOOTPRINTS IN THE SAND

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes of his life.

For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints.

He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it

“LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you’d walk with me all the way, but I noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don’t understand why when I needed you most you would leave me.”

The LORD replied, “My son, My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you.”
