

In Memory

Janeen V. LaBau, 67, of Miller, passed away Wednesday, March 2, 2011 at the Good Samaritan Society in Miller, SD

Janeen Velva was born August 26, 1943 to Leo and Velma (Gilland) Parmely at Junction City, Kansas while her father was stationed at Ft. Riley, Kansas. She was the oldest of five daughters.

She attended rural schools in Hand County and graduated from Wessington High School in 1961. She graduated from NW College of Commerce in Huron, SD and for many years worked as a secretary and in sales in Huron, Aberdeen, Sioux Falls and Rapid City. In 1988, she started her cleaning business and retired in 2002 due to COPD.

She married Duane E. Cundy September 4, 1965 at the First Presbyterian Church in Wessington and together they had one son, Mark. She later married Val C. LaBau September 15, 2000 at the First Presbyterian Church in Wolsey.

Janeen cherished her family and friends.

Grateful to have shared in her life was her husband, Val LaBau of Miller, SD; son, Mark Cundy of Wessington, SD; step-son, Joshua LaBau of Missoula, MT; four sisters: Sharon Larson of Jamestown, ND, Vicki (Dr. Mario) Herrera of New Mexico, Niece (Dennis) Koss of Portage, WI, and Kim Parmely of New Mexico; one uncle and aunt, Merlyn and Bernice Parmely of Miller, SD; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; one step-son, Shannon LaBau, who was killed in 1999; both maternal and paternal grandparents; and one nephew, Brad Fernholz.
