

Amy Peterka, 98, of Miller, passed away Saturday, April 2, 2011 at the Good Samaritan Society in Miller, SD.

Amy was born September 13, 1912 to Clarence and Mary (Clausen) Wilhelm in Centerville Township, Faulk County. She attended school in Faulk County.

In 1931, Amy attended Northern State Teacher's College. On February 24, 1934, she married Edward Peterka in Redfield, SD. Amy taught in rural school in Hyde, Hand and Faulk County until 1950 when she went to work at First National Bank in Miller, retiring after 27 years of service.

Amy and Edward travel extensively and enjoyed camping. Gardening, bowling, knitting, crocheting and attending auctions were some of Amy's other interest. From her auction sales, she gathered a nice collection of chickens, cups, saucers and fine china. Amy also had a great love for her many cats.

With Eddie playing in a band, they both loved to dance. In 1984, she and Eddie celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Amy was a member of the First Presbyterian Church in Miller and served on the G.A.R. Cemetery Board. In 2005, Amy became a resident at the Prairie Good Samaritan Center in Miller.

She is survived by many nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death was her parents; husband, Edward in 1992; sister, Marguerite Henderson; four brothers: Clarence, John, Willis and George Wilhelm; three nephews: Ray, Bill and Clair Henderson; and one great nephew, Gary Dean Peterka.

In lieu of flowers, the family request memorials that will be donated to local charities in Amy's memory.

Treasured Seasons

*For everything there is An appointed season,
And a time for everything
under heaven-
A time for sharing,
a time for caring.
A time for loving,
a time for giving:
A time for remembering,
a time for parting.
You have made everything
beautiful in its time for everything YOU do remains forever.*

In Loving Memory
