

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.

And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.

In Loving Memory

Marjorie Holtey

August 2, 1928
March 15, 2013

Marjorie Wright-Holtey, 84, of rural Wessington, passed away Friday, March 15, 2013 at the Avera Wesskota Memorial Hospital in Wessington Springs, SD.

Marjorie Gladys was born August 2, 1928 to Nile William and Gladys Elenora (Anderson) Wright in Bexar County, San Antonio, Texas. Marjorie attended St. Joseph's Elementary Catholic School in San Antonio and later went on to work with her mother, Gladys Wright in her various business interests.

She met and married Boyd Meeves Holtey on March 10, 1953 while he was in the Air Force at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. When Boyd finished his term of enlistment in the military; they decided to move back to South Dakota so Boyd could resume the ranch operations with his father and mother Herb and Bessie Holtey. Marjorie was an avid horse woman who loved to ride her Quarter horses. She and her husband Boyd raised Quarter horses and were very active in the American Quarter Horse Association for many years. Marjorie loved to garden, tending to her flowers every summer. She could make anything grow. She never passed up an opportunity to go fishing with her family. When not enjoying the outdoors; she was pursuing her passion of ceramics. She taught ceramic classes at her home for many years. Marjorie valued her family and always looked forward to those holidays when all of her family could be together.

Marjorie had a "spunky" personality and we always knew what she was thinking. Susie (her poodle) was her constant companion, and with her at all times during the last nine years. She will be very missed by her family and friends.

She is survived by her children: Thomas (Emily) Holtey of Wessington Springs, Russell (Susan) Holtey of Aberdeen and Linda (Don) Holtey-Hanks of Wessington; eight grandchildren: Laura (Peter) Holtey-Edeburn of Bloomington, MN, Nick Holtey of Missoula, MT, Kori Holtey-Fowlds of Aberdeen, Jeremy Holtey of Aberdeen, Michelle Holtey of Galveston, TX, Jami (Josh) Hanks-Walth of New Ulm, MN, Amber (Spencer) Hanks-Allen of St. Peter, MN, and Katie Lynn Hanks of Mankato, MN and many great grandchildren.

Marjorie was preceded in death by her father and mother; Nile William and Gladys Elenora (Anderson) Wright; and husband, Boyd Meeves Holtey.
