

Miss Me But Let Me Go

by Edgar A. Guest

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?*

*Miss me a little – but no too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared.
Miss me – but let me go.*

*For this is a journey we all must take.
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss Me But Let Me Go.*

Lunch and fellowship will follow the burial at the Ree Heights Legion Hall
