

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please go on bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same –
Spend not your life in empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways –
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.

In Loving Memory

Clifford B. Boldt

1924- 2014

Clifford B. Boldt, 90, of Sioux Falls and formerly of Miller, passed away Wednesday, December 10, 2014 at the V.A. Medical Center in Sioux Falls.

Clifford was born August 11, 1924 in Miller, South Dakota to August Martin and Margaret Elizabeth (Brown) Boldt. He attended school through the 8th grade in Miller. He then went to work for area carpenters. On February 13, 1942, he married Evelyn Phinney in Pierre, South Dakota. To this union, two daughters were born: Patricia and Sharon.

In 1944, he enlisted into the United States Army at Fort Snelling, Minnesota. He served in Rhineland and Central Europe. On March 2, 1946, he was honorably discharge with the Good Conduct Medal and European African Middle Eastern Theater Service Medal. Upon returning to Miller, he continued working for carpenters; later starting his own carpentry business and was the general contractor for many building projects around Miller. Later in life, he opened and operated CB Lumber in Miller.

Some of his hobbies included bowling, fishing, hunting, playing pool, and being involved with his family. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and American Legion. When he was 85 years old, he was able to take a European trip with his great grandson, Madison Landeen. They were able to see many of the landmarks from the WWII era. Two months after returning from his Europe and Germany trip, he took the Honor Flight to Washington D.C. to see the veteran memorials. Those two trips were two of his most treasured adventures.

Left behind to cherish his memory are his two daughters: Sharon E. Hollis and Patricia L. Schaaf, both of Sioux Falls; six grandchildren: Maverick Merritt, Darcy Merritt, Law Merritt, Kelly Mendel, Ashley Botha, and Leah Schaaf; and one half sister, Ruby McCool of Huron.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Evelyn in 2005; son-in-law, Robert Hollis; and 11 brothers and sisters.
