THE LIFE OF

Norman Max Lander

August 13, 1922 - January 22, 2015

Norman Max Lander, 92, of Miller, passed away Thursday, January 22, 2015 at the Avera Hand County Memorial Hospital, Miller.

Norm was born on August 13, 1922 in Montrose, SD to Roy and Pearl (Kay) Lander. He moved to Watertown, SD as a young boy and graduated high school from there. He enlisted in the Army in October 1942 during WWII. While Norm was in the Army he attended college at Bozeman, MT. He was shipped overseas to serve in the European Theater in 1944. Norm was honorably discharged in April 1946.

On October 24, 1953, Norm married Marcella Aderhold. To this union three children were born; a son, Lynn and two daughters, Lori and Julie.

Norm worked as an engineer for the S.D. Department of Transportation for 37 ½ years. He started in Watertown; transferring to Miller in 1960 where he worked until retiring in 1984.

Norm was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, serving as an usher and trustee. He also belonged to the American Legion, VFW, and Miller Golf Club. He loved to hunt and was an excellent marksman. He also enjoyed fishing, camping, golf, bowling, dancing, and watching spectator sports.

Norm is survived by his wife, Marcie of Miller; children, Lynn (Peg) Lander of Aberdeen, Lori (Rob) Girvin of Tacoma, WA, and Julie (Gerry) Cain of St. Lawrence; five grandsons: Brant (Monique) Lander, Kellan and Logan Girvin, Colt (Heather McBride) Cain, and Tanner Cain; two great grandsons: Kai Lander and Hunter Cain; one nephew, Jerry (Ellie) Lander of Coeur d'Alene, ID and a great nephew, Larry (Cheryl) Lander of Goleta, CA.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Larry and George; and his twin sister, Nell.
