

TO THOSE I LOVE AND
THOSE WHO LOVE ME

When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near.

And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you come this way alone....
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"WELCOME HOME"

In Loving Memory

Elden Carl Moser "Fudder"

January 19, 1932 - April 3, 2015

Elden "Fudder" Moser, 83, of Miller, passed away peacefully Friday, April 3, 2015 at the Good Samaritan Society in Miller.

Elden "Fudder" Carl Moser was born January 19, 1932 at the family farm near Rosehill to H.J. and Pauline (Fastnacht) Moser. He grew up on the farm and graduated from the 8th grade at Rosehill. After walking sixteen miles to meet his military draft, he served in the 11th Airborne (Army) Combat in the Korean War on the front line infantry; serving from 1952 to 1954. He returned home and married the love of his life, Norma Jean Anderson on July 7, 1954. During this marriage, six children were born. Fudder worked very hard as a farm hand, spent several years as a butcher and then working construction for Westcott's for 37 years.

Fudder's greatest passions were hunting, fishing, making sausage, jerky, spending time with family and friends, and enjoyed dancing and music. He loved planting and tending to his garden and loved watching and protecting his chicken, ducks, and geese. He took great pride in teaching his grandkids and family the joys of hunting and fishing. He loved family gatherings, as family time was very important and time spent visiting with his many friends.

His memory will be cherished by his precious wife, Norma; children: Linda (Leon) Snay, Cynthia (John) Bowar, Larry (Shirdene) Moser, Eugene (Sherry) Moser, Lawrence (Shannon) Moser, and Barbara (Marlon) Weyand; 20 grandchildren: Lisa (Robby) Richardson, Chris (Stephanie) Martchinske, Kenny (Jaime) Martchinske, Jenny (Cody) Sivertsen, Nalana Bowar, Paula (Waylon) Pearson, Penny Jennings, Christina Artman, Dustin (Tiffany) Moser, Matthew (Tiffany) Moser, Celeste Moser, Carl Moser, Jessica (Cody) Moser, Douglas (Brittany) Moser, Desiree Moser, Kimberly Moser, Jacob Moser, Courtney Moser, Clint Weyand, and Paige Weyand; 24 great grandchildren: Kaitlynn and Kassidy Dyer, Kaden Pearson, Chase and Chandler Arland, Jonathan and Joslynn Tassler, Mya and Jayden Lamar, Malcolm Reid, Kennidy Lindner, Landon, Bentley, and Ava Martchinske, Sarah Martchinske, Toby Sivertsen, Memphis, Skylar and Terence Frueh, and Wyatt and Thomas Moser, Braxden and Ma'Kenna Moser and our brand new Connor Moser, along with twelve adoptive great grandchildren; two sisters: Elaine (Darrell) Peterman and Sherry (Larry) VanZee; one brother, Richard (Ardessa) Moser; several nieces and nephews; sister-in-law, Virginia Kelsey; and many many family members.

He was preceded in death by his parents; and brothers: Leroy, Clarence, and Bud Moser.
