

Psalm 23

The Lord is my Shepherd: I shall not want

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

"Providing Comfort To Families"

God's Farm

God needs someone in heaven
To plow and plant the rows
And when He calls on me,
I know that I must go.
Remember that I won't be gone,
I will just be away,
Working on God's farm
'till we're united again one day.
There will be no storms in heaven
And the fields are long and straight.
When it's time for you to join me,
I'll be waiting inside heaven's gate.
Remember until the day arrives,
When once more our lives we'll share,
To look in the green fields growing
And you'll see me working there.

Roger Dean, 92, of Miller, passed away Monday, July 6, 2015 at the Avera Dougherty Hospice House in Sioux Falls.

Roger Trueman Dean was born December 29, 1922 to Laurence and Clara (Borgedalen) Dean in Hand County, SD. In 1940, he graduated from Miller High School. He was a member of the first FFA officer team at Miller High School. After high school he worked in the sugar beet factory in Belle Fourche.

He was drafted to serve in World War II and was shipped out on his 21st birthday and was sworn in at Fort Snelling, MN on December 30, 1943. He also served at Fort Sill, OK, and Scofield Barracks, Oahu, Hawaii. He was discharged from the Army in April 1946. He was a member of the Veterans of Foreign War.

Roger married Marles Parmely on January 19, 1951. Roger worked for area farmers from 1946 to 1951 including Alvie Haberling and Harley Fulton. They purchased the farm in Spring Lake Township in 1955 where they farmed and ranched for 36 years. He was a 4-H Leader, a township board member, a charter member of the Miller FFA Chapter, and a charter and lifetime member of the Miller FFA Alumni.

In 1991, Roger and Marles retired and moved into Miller. They made frequent trips to the farm to mow, plant trees, paint, and tend to the garden. Roger enjoyed his grandkids' activities, MHS basketball, doing crosswords and jigsaw puzzles, Hereford cattle, and his many flower gardens.

Roger is survived by his wife of 64½ years, Marles; daughters: Sheree (Dale) Christensen, Beresford, SD and Shelley (Mike) Moncur, Miller, SD; grandchildren Dean and Kaysee Christensen and Erin Moncur; brother, Darrell Dean, Bloomfield, NE; in-laws: Viorene McEldowney, Ellen Parmely, Mildred (Lowell) Engel, Ruby Parmely, Margaret Starks, James (Genevieve) Parmely, Beth (Jack) Engel, and Gene Swaney; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents; siblings: Mildred (Henry) Venjohn, Raymond Dean, Leonard (Vera) Dean and Helen (Raymond) Olson; in-laws: Phyllis Dean, Wayne Parmely, Viola (Junior) Ford, Clark Parmely, Richard Starks, Otis (Natalie) Parmely, and Lenarda Swaney.
