

Who are you, and why are you here?
How often this question does appear,
The Bible says, "God made man for his pleasure",
Then how can we gain the greatest measure
Of God's Blessings, and how can we please Him?
By keeping His command and His every whim,
By seeking His scriptures and asking His guide
And His love for us surely will abide.

God loves man and felt very sad
When He saw His people turning bad.
What did he do, to show His love?
He sent His only son from above.
To die on the cross for you and me,
So Heaven our home will truly be.
Need we ask again, who are we?
For this truth we can clearly see.

Dear Friends, listen when you hear Him call
Even though the voice may be faint and small –
He says, "Be still and know that I am God"
As on the earth you do trod,
Answer the Saviors call today
Fall on your knees and begin to pray,
If some things you can't figure out,
Take it on Faith, and do not doubt,
For God truly love His sheep
And His children when they keep
His word and scriptures close to their heart
And then from us He shall never depart.
The Fruits of the Spirit, shall be our reward
It is the gift of our precious Lord.
