

WALKING WITH GRANDPA

*I like to walk with Grandpa
His steps are short like mine
He doesn't say "Now hurry up,"
He always takes his time.
I like to walk Grandpa
His eyes see things like mine do
Wee pebbles bright, a funny cloud,
Half hidden drops of dew
Most people have to hurry
They do not stop and see
I'm glad that God made Grandpa
Unrushed and young like me.*

THE LIFE OF
Terry Scott Sievers
February 21, 1944 - January 3, 2017

Terry Sievers, 72, of Miller, passed away Tuesday, January 3, 2016 at Avera Hand County Memorial Hospital in Miller, after a brave struggle with cancer.

Terry was born February 21, 1944 in Jacksonville, Illinois to Paul and Velma (Phillips) Sievers. At the age of three, following his father's death, he and his mother moved back to Wessington where he attended grade and high school, graduating in 1962. His formal education ended after two semesters at Northern College, when he began working for John McInnis at Dakota Plumbing and Heating; the start of a lifelong comradery and friendship.

He married Pamela Brandenburg on August 16, 1964. He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and worked as a flight line mechanic from 1967-1971, serving a tour in Vietnam from 1967-68. During his years in the service, Terry was assigned to bases in Texas, Arizona, and Michigan. Their daughter, Lynn Paulette, was born in Amarillo, Texas and twelve years later a son, Branden Scott, was born in Huron, South Dakota.

Terry was proud of his Wessington heritage, but definitely made Miller his home. He understood the importance of community involvement, often taking on leadership roles in many organizations; Miller School Board (19 years), Music Parents, Jaycees, Youth Basketball, Boy Scouts, SnoGoers, American Legion, VFW, Honor Guard, and Masons. He was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church, serving as a council member and council president.

Terry's greatest love was his family. Always there to help and support when needed. He also enjoyed spending time at the cabin on Lake Poinsett, and working with his horses. He could often be found riding his horse, Johnny, or driving his team of half lingers, Dan and Don.

His is survived by his daughter, Lynn (Kevin) Watts of Miller, and his son, Branden Sievers of Volga; four grandchildren: Alexis and Nathan Watts of Miller and Ryan and Dylan Sievers of Madison; long-time family friend, Peggy McInnis of Miller; and many treasured cousins and family friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; an infant sister, Paulette; and his parents-in-law, Ellwood and Margaret Brandenburg.
