

Going Home

When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please go on bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same—
Spend not your life in empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways—
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near.*

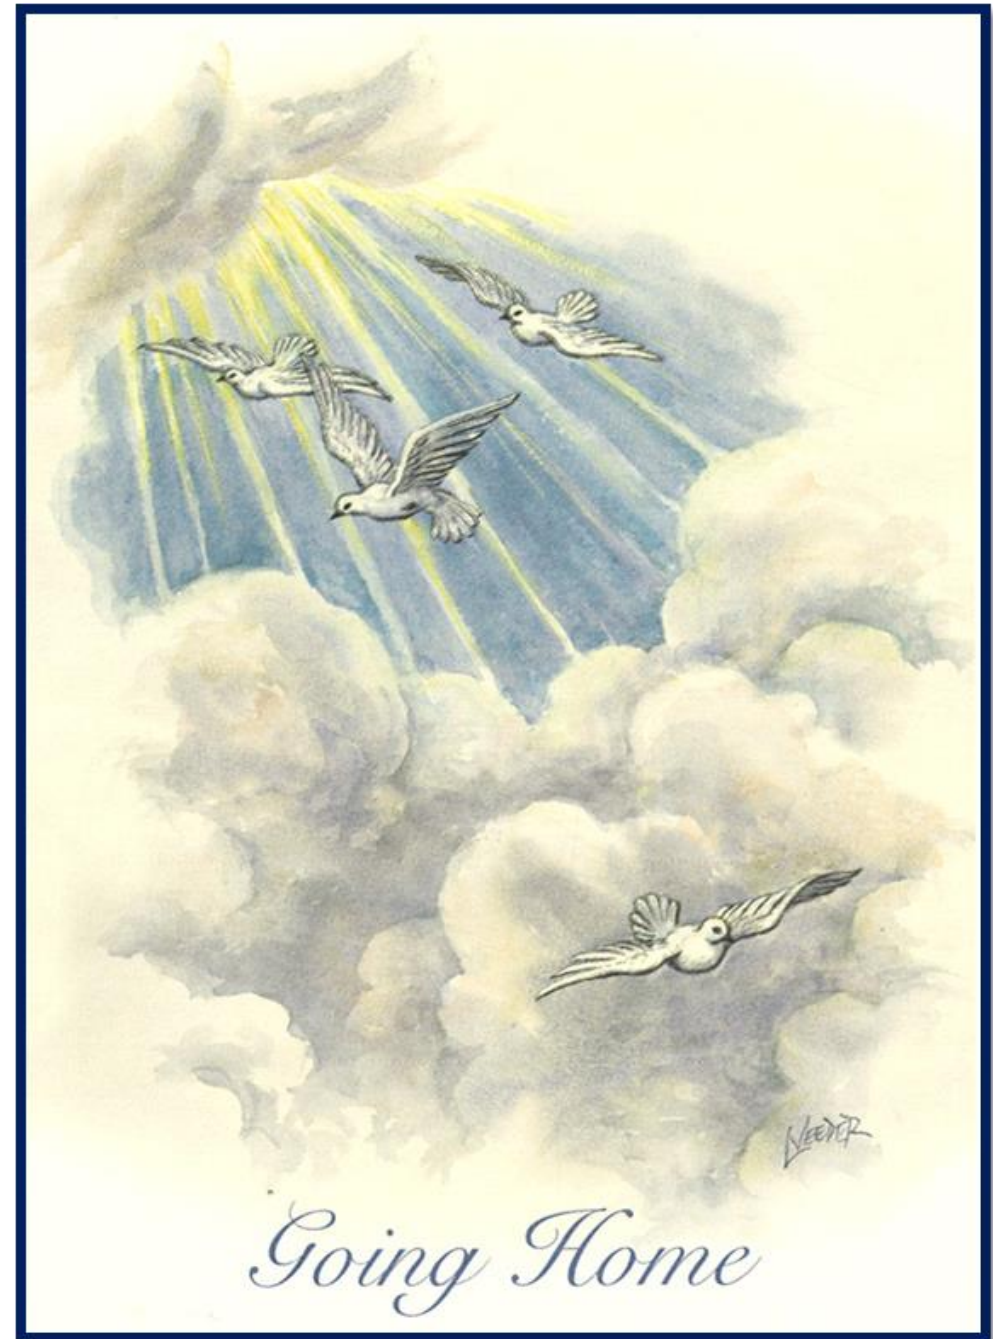

Helen Steiner Rice

Arrangements Entrusted To

Miller, South Dakota
www.familyfuneralhome.net

"Providing Comfort To Families"

Alice Campbell, 98, of Miller, passed away Friday, March 24, 2017 at the Good Samaritan Society in Miller.

Alice was born January 15, 1919 at her family home in Kimball, South Dakota to Kristian and Kristina (Olson) Johnson. She attended school through the 8th grade; later at the age of 50 obtaining her G.E.D. On November 20, 1943, she married Alfred Campbell in Los Angeles, California; honeymooning at Knottsberry

Farm. They lived in Los Angeles for one year where Alfred worked as a security guard. They then moved to Ree Heights for a short time before moving on a farm south of Miller, the Paul Robison farm down by the Campbell place, later moving to the Rice farm before moving onto the Coonrod place in Como Township where they lived until Alfred died in 1960. After Alfred's passing, Alice and their three daughters moved into Miller.

She also worked at the Hand County Memorial Hospital, Rolstad Motel, and did housekeeping for many families. Alice then went to beauty school at the age of 50 and then owned and operated her beauty shop for 37 years before retiring at the age of 87.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church where she sang in the choir and belong to the women's circle. In her spare time, she was a seamstress for many people in the community, loved cooking, and helping anyone she could.

Her memory will be cherished by her daughter: Lila (Don) Lopata of Renton, Washington and their two children, and five grandchildren; her daughter, Linda Gilliland of Rapid City and her five children and seven grandchildren; and her son-in-law, Roger Bowar of Miller and his six children, 15 grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren.

Preceding her in death was her husband, Alfred; daughter, Kay Bowar; grandchildren: Tamara Kay, Roger Mark, and Jason; sons-in-law, Larry Kopplin and Roy Gilliland; two brothers; and nine sisters.

In Loving Memory

Alice B. Campbell

January 15, 1919
Kimball, South Dakota

March 24, 2017
Miller, South Dakota

MEMORIAL SERVICE:

10:30 a.m., Wednesday, March 29, 2017

First United Methodist Church

Miller, South Dakota

OFFICIATING:

Rev. Matt Richards

USHER:

Eugene Moncur

MUSICIANS:

Sandie Aymar, Shelly Kopplin,

LaRee Hughett, Don Lopata, MaKayla Kopplin

MUSIC SELECTIONS:

"It Is Well With My Soul"

"Softly and Tenderly"

"In the Garden"

"The Old Rugged Cross"

INTERMENT:

G.A.R. Cemetery

Miller, South Dakota

Following the burial, everyone is invited to join the family for lunch and fellowship in the church hall