

Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?" Jesus replied: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.'"

Matthew 22:34-40

Ida was born on February 21, 1925 to John and Christina (Mertz) Schock in Kulm, North Dakota. Ida came to Miller and worked her way through school graduating from Miller High School in 1944. She met Ben Weideman during her sophomore year. Following graduation, Ben joined the Navy and Ida attended the South Dakota Beauty Academy in Sioux Falls.

The Weidemans were married January 24, 1945 while Ben was still in the Navy. Ida did hairdressing in Oxnard, California before the couple moved back to South Dakota where Ben worked as a plasterer and brick layer.

On February 14, 1947, Ida opened a salon in Miller. Ben joined Ida in the family business as a hairdresser in 1954. They also operated a salon in Faulkton during the 1960s and one in Highmore from 1961 to 1984. She was a member of the Hairdressers and Cosmetology Association since 1948. In 1985, Ida was named South Dakota Cosmetologist of the Year.

Ida and Ben were married for nearly 70 years and were blessed with two sons, nine grandchildren, and ten great grandchildren. Ida loved nothing more than spending time with her family, cutting hair, and visiting. Ida enjoyed her career, but she also enjoyed her personal life.
