

WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU

When I must leave you for a little while,
Please go on bravely with a gallant smile
And for my sake and in my name,
Live on and do all things the same—
Spend not your life in empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways—
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer,
And I in turn will comfort you
and hold you near.

Memories

Lydia was born June 1, 1921 to George and Lydia (Buechler) Engel in Miller. She attended Stebbins country school through the 8th grade. She attended Miller High School through the 9th grade before quitting to help on the family farm during the depression.

On June 5, 1945, she was united in marriage to Trigue Norman Hall in Pierre. Lydia lived most of her life in Miller. Lydia had an in-home daycare for many years and also babysat at night and weekends. She then worked at the Miller Good Samaritan for 27 ½ years as a housekeeper.

Her favorite pastimes included spending time with family and friends, gardening, watching soap operas, "seek a word" puzzles, and enjoying listening to music. She also loved and had a large collection of angels. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church and United Methodist Women.

Lydia is survived by her daughters: Bonnie Hall of Miller and Beverly (Leland) Cain of Miller; grandchildren and great grandchildren: Stacey (Terry) Boomsma, Seth and Brendon of Crooks; Scott (Rube) Hall of San Francisco, CA; Mike (Erin) Cain, Madox, Declan, and Grace of Long Beach, NY; Dr. Kevin (Tricia) Cain, Gavin, Hudson, Braxten, and Conrad of Miller; Brian Cain (Lindsey Clarke) of Miller; and Ryan (Teresa) Cain, Ethan and Emma of Lenexa, KS; and many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; sisters: Sophie Engel and Vida Eisenbraun; brothers: George, John, Ed, and Fred Engel; five infant siblings; sisters-in-law: Lorene, Esther, and Geneva Engel, Esther Speck, Jessie, Ellen, Gertie, and Florence Hall; brothers-in-law: Melvin, Ellert, Otto, Eli, and Alfred Hall, Rudolph Eisenbraun and Gus Speck; and nephews: Jerry Eisenbraun, Willard Engel, Clayton Engel, Eddie Engel, Marvin Speck, and Kenny Hall.

Angels walk among us, only sometimes they don't wear wings - they are called Moms.
