

To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have many things to see and do
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be happy that we had so many years.

I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must;
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me call and I will come
Though you can't see me or touch me I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you will hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you come this way alone....
I'll greet you with a smile and say
"WELCOME HOME"

Audrey J. Campbell

March 16, 1938 - January 11, 2023

Audrey J. Campbell, 84, of Sioux Falls and formerly of Miller, passed away peacefully with family by her side on Wednesday, January 11, 2023, at Avera Dougherty Hospice House in Sioux Falls.

Audrey was born on March 16, 1938, in Miller, South Dakota to Helen M. (Schaefers) and Lawrence J. Sommer. She attended school in Miller all her life and graduated from Miller High School in 1956. Audrey was valedictorian and Homecoming Queen her senior year. She married her high school sweetheart, Ronald D. Campbell, on June 8, 1957. After Ron graduated from law school, they lived and worked in several cities in South Dakota before settling in Miller to raise their family in 1967. To this union, three children were born: Jerus, Jodi, and Julie. Audrey devoted her life to raising her children and later worked at Quoin Financial Bank where she was the friendly face of the bank's drive-through until her retirement.

For most of her 84 years, Audrey lived in and loved Miller. Her Catholic faith was a big part of her life. She was an active member of St. Ann's Catholic Church and St. Ursula's Altar Society. She enjoyed her bridge club and P.E.O. Chapter AK sisterhood and cherished the memories and time spent with her most special friends. Along with enthusiastically supporting her children in all their events, Audrey was also an avid Miller Rustlers, USD Coyotes, and Minnesota Vikings fan. Her family loved her cooking, especially all the amazing holiday treats that filled her front porch each December.

Audrey is survived by one brother, J. David Sommer; a son, Jerus (Janelle) of Tea, SD; two daughters: Jodi (Shannon) Schultz of Clive, IA and Julie Hintgen of Spearfish, SD; loving grandchildren: Jessica, Jerus "Jake", Alex, Beau, Chaz, Sam, Chelsea, Elizabeth Grace, and Zachary; as well as many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents: Helen and Lawrence Sommer; siblings: Raphael, Alvin, Jenise, Adeline, Mary, and Judith; husband, Ron; sister-in-law, Karen Rose; and numerous relatives and dear friends.
