What will happen next?

Luce, Luze, & Reck Funeral Homes will send a care professional to your loved one's location as soon as we are notified. Your loved one is then transferred directly into our care center.

Your loved one never leaves our care.

A staff member will be dedicated to assisting you and your family and will contact you to set a mutually agreed upon time to complete arrangements. From there, we will then take care of filing all necessary paperwork with the State of South Dakota, assist you in making arrangements associated with a service, etc.

We are here to help.

Please call us if you have additional questions or need immediate assistance, any time of the day or night.
