

The Little Things

*Thank you, Lord, for "Little Things"
Like rays of hope – a smile can bring
A clasping of a helping hand
The soothing words – "I understand"
The warmth of sunshine after rain
A sign of comfort – after pain!
A friend who "stays" through trials and tears
The peace they give to calm our fears
For all His mercy – and His love
When prayers are answered from above
Oh, thank You, Lord for "Little Things"
That help us soar on eagles wings!*

James Quentin Worth was born January 23, 1925 west of Gettysburg to John Fredrick and Robbie M. (Harvey) Worth. He attended school through the 10th grade. Quentin then went to work with his father on the family farm.

On June 5, 1949 he married Eileen Ruth Boke at the Congregational Church in Lebanon. They made their home in Gettysburg where Quentin continued to farm, work for the Implement and lastly for the Potter County Highway Department until his retirement in 1988.

During his retirement years Quentin enjoyed time spent driving tractors, watching TV, working word puzzles, attending car races, and listening to organ and country music. He attended the Gettysburg United Methodist Church and the First United Methodist Church in Aberdeen and was a member of the Odd Fellow Lodge.

Quentin enjoyed every part of his life and when asked what he would change he said not a thing. He was very proud of his three loving and independent children, his grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Quentin's life is left to be cherished by his spouse Eileen of Aberdeen; two daughters: Marcia (Lester) Urban of Watertown and Roxie (Brad) Olson of Aberdeen; daughter-in-law: Nancy Worth of Clark; his six grandchildren: Cory (Jill) Worth, Brent Urban, Emily (William) Cordell, Gina (Bradley) Enstad, Jonathan (Megan) Olson and Erin Olson; six great grandchildren: Caitlin and Jeffrey Worth, Hunter and Mason Cordell, and Mackenzie and Madison Enstad; his siblings: Dean (Dottie) Worth and Dorothy J Worth all of Gettysburg.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one son, Rickey Worth; one grandson: Jeffrey Worth; two brothers: Wayne and Robert Worth; and five sisters: Florence Stankey, Myrtle Mertz, Katherine Mangin, Lucy Worth and D. Lorraine Schnunner.
