

REFLECTION OF A MOM

This mom, her love always constant, putting smiles on our faces, love and warmth in our hearts.

This mom, always giving,
sharing her love, never asking anything in return.

This mom, who loved us for who we were,
a mom who was with us every step of the way,

asking only that we love each other,
this mom, a best friend, a confident,
a mother laughing with us, crying with us,
Reflections of a mom, "Our Mom".

Thank you for being our mother.

We will always love you.

You will be in our hearts forever.

Now be in God's Care.

Cardinals
CELEBRATING A LIFE

In Loving Memory
CELEBRATING A LIFE

PRAYER SERVICE:

7:00 p.m., Sunday, July 22, 2018

First Presbyterian Church - Miller, South Dakota

FUNERAL SERVICE:

11:00 a.m., Monday, July 23, 2018

First Presbyterian Church - Miller, South Dakota

MINISTER: Rev. Janice Palmer

CASKETBEARERS:

Jason Wallman, Ryan Thompson,
Chad Thompson, Brock Wallman, Nathan Wallman,
Tyler Swaney, Dustin Volek, Andy Sivertsen

HONORARY CASKETBEARERS:

Tera Busenitz, Darcy Tenan, Angie Carlson,
Kristin Wallman, Annie Freudenthal, Britney Geppert

MUSICIANS: SuAnne Meyer,

Brian Bergeleen

MUSICAL SELECTIONS:

"Softly and Tenderly"

"Amazing Grace-My Chains are Gone"

"Beyond the Sunset"

"God Be with You"

Interment:

Morningside Cemetery
Ree Heights, South Dakota

Arrangements Entrusted To Reck Funeral Home - Miller, South Dakota
www.familyfuneralhome.net

In Loving MEMORY
Ruth Sivertsen

April 28, 1924 - July 19, 2018

Ruth Sivertsen, 94, of Miller, passed away Thursday, July 19, 2018 at the Highmore Health.

Annie Ruth was born April 28, 1924, to James and Ruby (Fawcett) Lobban at their farm home in Cedar Township in Hand County. She attended rural schools in Cedar Township. She graduated from Alpena High School in 1943. Following high school, Ruth completed nurses training at the Methodist Hospital in Mitchell, SD, and was a cadet in the U.S. Cadet Nurse Corps created during World War II. She began her nursing career at the Miller Hospital which was located above the Opera House on main street. Two new hospitals were built before her retirement in 1989. Ruth loved her profession and cared deeply for her patients.

She married DeWayne Emret Sivertsen on February 21, 1948 at the Congregational Church in Fort Pierre, SD. They lived on a farm in southern Hyde County until 1954 when they moved south of Ree Heights to the Lobban family farm. Together they raised six children while working side-by-side on the farm. In 2007, they moved into Ree Heights and in 2017, she moved to the assisted living in Miller.

Ruth was a member of the Cedar Congregational Church and the First Presbyterian Church in Miller. She was a member of the Hilltop Grange, Ree Heights Legion Auxiliary, Hand County Hospital Auxiliary, Highmore Roundup Club, Miller School Board, and was an active 4-H parent. Ruth enjoyed gardening, canning, rock collecting, sewing, and cooking; winning second place in the 1959 National Grange Baking Contest. Win or lose, she was always an avid Minnesota Twins fan.

Ruth's family was her first priority and she loved attending her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren's events. She will always be remembered as a strong, generous, and loving lady.

Thankful to have shared her life are her children: Judy (Galan) Wallman, Garner (Sally) Sivertsen, Joan Sivertsen, Janice (Keith) Volek, Robert (Vicki) Sivertsen, and Joyce (Lynn) Swaney; grandchildren: Travis Sivertsen, Jason Wallman, Ryan Thompson, Tera Busenitz, Chad Thompson, Brock Wallman, Nathan Wallman, Darcy Tenan, Angie Carlson, Tyler Swaney, Kristin Wallman, Dustin Volek, Andy Sivertsen, Annie Freudenthal, and Britney Geppert; 26 great grandchildren; sisters-in-law: Leona Lobban, LaVonne Kusser, and Mary Ann Sivertsen; brother-in-law, Eddie (Christine) Sivertsen; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Ruth was preceded in death by her parents; husband, DeWayne; brothers: Alex Lobban, James Lobban, and infant brother; sisters: Allie Alice Lobban (at one year of age), Edna Hasart, Nellie Jager, Margaret Knippling, and Christina Smith; sisters-in-law: Irene Lobban, Shirley Sivertsen, and Clara Sivertsen; brothers-in-law: Thomas Hasart, August Jager, Paul Knippling, Gene Smith, Vernon Sivertsen, Leland Sivertsen, and Wilmer Sivertsen.