

Delmar Hagenlock, 89, of Gettysburg, passed away Wednesday, May 16, 2018 at Ipswich Care and Rehab.

Delmar Hagenlock was born February 26, 1929 at Seneca, SD to Waldemar "Walt" and Della (Grimm) Hagenlock. Following his high school education, Del went on to school through the University of South Dakota at Springfield, studying autobody and mechanics.

On June 2, 1951 Del married Donna Weber at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Gettysburg. They made their home in Gettysburg where they raised their family, and Del owned and operated Del's Repair until 2001 when he retired.

In his retirement, Del enjoyed hunting and shooting pool.

Those left to cherish Del's life are his children: Marie Hagenlock of Portland, OR and Richard Hagenlock (Sonia Cartagena) of Los Angeles, CA; one granddaughter, Sasha Hagenlock of Los Angeles, CA; sister, Ellen Cogswell of Joaquin, TX; brothers: Carl of Onaka, Les of Bozeman, MT and Roger (Bonnie) of Pierre; and his brothers and sisters-in-law: Margie Vujnovik, Bernadette Klaus, Levora Palmer and Marshall Weber.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Donna in 2012; daughter, Patricia; and brothers: Edwin, Louis, and Glen.

In Loving Memory of

Delmar Hagenlock

February 26, 1929
Seneca, South Dakota

May 16, 2018
Ipswich, South Dakota

VISITATION:

5:00 - 7:00 p.m., Monday, May 21, 2018
Luce Funeral Home
Gettysburg, South Dakota

GRAVESIDE SERVICE:

11:00 a.m., Tuesday, May 22, 2018
Sacred Heart Catholic Cemetery
Gettysburg, South Dakota

OFFICIATING:

Fr. Jerry Kopel

Gettysburg, South Dakota
www.familyfuneralhome.net

